VOLUME XXII—NUMBER 2

SEPTEMBER 24, 1960

Syd Nathan, president of King Records, watches Hank Ballard as the artist displays his winning "finger-poppin'" technique. "Finger Poppin' Time" is the title of one of the country's biggest pop teenage hits which Ballard and the Midnighters recorded under the King banner. Ballard has been turning out one hit after another, hitting consistently in R & B. "Finger Poppin' Time" establishes Ballard as a pop threat. The Ballard-Midnighters combo has four albums available on King. His latest single is "Let's Go, Let's Go, Let's Go" b/w "If You'd Forgive Me."

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"LOVE WALKED IN" (2:10) "I'M IN HEAVEN TONIGHT"

[Chappell ASCAP— (2:25)

I. & G. Gershwin] [Eden BMI—Kirkland, Otis]

DINAH WASHINGTON (Mercury 71696)

Miss Washington, whose current entry in her personal hit parade is "This Bitter Earth," serves up two more winners here. It's an oldie-newie pairing, culled from her (and Brook Benton's) current hit LP, "The Two Of Us," that makes for a fabulous listening treat. The evergreen, "Love Walked In," is set to a soft cha cha beat while the newcomer, "I'm In Heaven Tonight," takes a slow ballad ride. Excellent duo.

"HUMDINGER" (2:45) [Conley ASCAP—Slay, Crewe]

"MY BLUE HEAVEN" (2:30) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Whiting, Donaldson]

FREDDY CANNON (Swan 4061)

Cannon is back with two more that are right up the teeners' alley. Lead-off side, is a newcomer tabbed "Humdinger," that the artist, along with the Frank Slay ork-chorus, knocks out in his familiar 'rockin-the-location' fashion. The other end, has Freddy and company shufflin' thru the great old-timer, "My Blue Heaven" (from his "Happy Shades of Blue" LP).

"THAT'S HOW MUCH" (2:15) ("THE CLICKITY CLACK SONG)

[Aldon BMI—Kaplan, Arthur, FOUR LITTLE HEELS" (1:58)

Keller] [George Pincus & Sons ASCAP—
Vance, Pockriss]

BRIAN HYLAND (Kapp 352)

The youngster, whose delightful "Itsy Bitsy" offering helped make this one of the hottest (sales-wise) summers in years, dishes up a new pairing that can create a fall sensation. On one half he colorfully swings thru a fast moving (with a dandy pause gimmick) ditty tabbed "That's How Much." On the other side he cha cha's thru a cutie dubbed "Four Little Heels" (penned by "Itsy writers, Vance and Pockriss). Tantalizing chorus-ork assists on both cuttings.

"SERENATA" (2:40) "LET'S" (2:22) [Kahl, Wermar

[Mills ASCAP—Parish, Anderson] BMI—Martinelli, Lehman]

SARAH VAUGHAN (Roulette 4285)

The lark takes a famed old-timer, "Serenata," and a brand new item, "Let's," and wraps 'em both up in most attractive fashion. The wonderful Leroy Anderson penned (with the Mitchell Parish lyric) oldie sails along at a charming light swing pace. The newcomer is an enticing romancer that follows the cha cha route. Joe Reisman's crew grabs choral and orchestral credits on both ends.

"POETRY IN MOTION" (2:14) [Meridian BMI—Kaufman, Anthony]

"PRINCESS, PRINCESS" (2:14) [Meridian BMI—Tillotson]

JOHNNY TILLOTSON (Cadence 1384)

Tillotson, who's had one money-maker after another (his most recent offering was the "Earth Angel"—"Pledging My Love" coupling), can make it to top-tensville with this one. It's a thumping cha cha romancer on which Johnny describes his gal as "Poetry In Motion." It's loaded with those big hit ingredients. Under end's an engaging quick-beat Tillotson original.

"DANCE WITH ME GEORGIE" "HAVE MERCY BABY" (2:22)

(2:05) [Billy Ward BMI—Ward]

[Alan K BMI—Bobbettes]

THE BOBBETTES (Triple—X 106)

The gals, who bounced back into the hit spotlight with "I Shot Mr. Lee" (the sequel to their while back "Mr. Lee" lick), can have a double-barreled smasher with this new Triple-X release. They're two very exciting up-datings of while-back R&B sensations, "Dance With Me Georgie" (Henry) and "Have Mercy Baby," that the 'twistin' kids'll be buying up by the carload.

GUY PASTOR (Capitol 4450)

(B+) "LOVELY LAURIE" [Sunbeam BMI—Bock, Harnick] Songster—son of bandleader Tony Pastor—has a fine voice, and does a first-rate ballad job on a pretty item from "Tenderloin," the upcoming musical by the writers of "Fiorello!" Fine legit ork-chorus backing. Class date that deserves lots of airtime.

(B) "JUST SQUEEZE ME" [Robbins ASCAP—] Oldie comes in for an easy swing statement.

RALPH DE MARCO (Shelley 1011)

(B) "FOR ALL WE KNOW" (2:07) [Leo ASCAP—Coots, Levin] The mainstay receives a worthwhile teen-beat revival. The nice De Marco vocal is backed by an interesting shuffle-beat combo arrangement (male chorus is also included). Very listenable date.

(B) "DONNA" (2:32) [Heatherfield BMI—Mure, Henry] Tale of a girl who dies is handled in a pro beat-ballad manner. Opus is not the late Richie Valens' hit.

FRANKIE LAINE (Columbia 41787)

(B) "KISSES THAT SHAKE THE WORLD" (2:24) [MeloArt ASCAP—Dentato, Gifford] Nice easy-beat blueser from the vet vocalist. Gal chorus and lightly pounding ork provide effective accompaniment. Side should get good airtime.

(B) "HERE SHE COMES NOW" (2:54) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Hilliard, DeLugg] This portion puts Laine in a rock-type mood, though the beat is relaxed.

THE REGENTS (Kayo 101)

(B+) "THAT'S WHAT I CALL A GOOD TIME" (2:00) [Tweety Skyrocket BMI—Johnson] A fine, rompin' Lloyd Price-type outing from the team, which puts a solid songster upfront. Rockin' good show from the musicians. Date could mean something.

(B) "NO HARD FEELINGS" (2:07) [Tweety Skyrocket BMI—Williams] Bluesy slow-beat statement from the artist.

JIMMY McCracklin (Mercury 71666)

(B) "I'll Be Glad When You're Dead" YOU RASCAL YOU" (2:18) [Gotham ASCAP—Theard] The oldtimer is revived with a bright-beat pose by the songster and musicians. A lively rocker with a well-defined beat.

(B) "NO ONE TO LOVE ME" (2:23) [Brenda BMI—Atis, Kixon] A basic, lonely blueser is McCracklin's vehicle here.

BEVERLY ST. LAWRENCE (Shasta 142)

(B) "ON AND ON" (2:25) [Mono BMI—Masten, Botkin] Lark newcomer heads an upbeat showing of a haunting theme. Male chorus and clicking combo sound top the backing sounds.

(C+) "GOSH, I'VE MISSED YOU" (2:17) [Mono BMI—Owens, Floyd] Talent is mostly multi-tracked on the plaintive.

GLORIA LYNNE (Everest 19373)

(B+) "CONDEMNED WITHOUT TRIAL" (2:01) [Hill & Range BMI—Blair, Robertson] Thrush delivers a waltz plaintive in the "Tennessee Waltz" vein. She is sometimes multi-tracked, and strings are part of the setting proceedings. Can come up with good exposure.

(B) "DREAMY" (2:41) [Octave ASCAP—Shaw, Garner] Stylist is cozy on the Erroll Garner moody.

TONY PRIMO (Nomar 101)

(B) "THAT'S THE WAY I FEEL" (2:25) [Michele ASCAP—Pleis, Pelaez] Virile-voiced Primo offers an upbeat rock warble against some pro guitar-led statements from the combo.

(C+) "I'M GONNA RUN AWAY FROM YOU" (2:18) [Michele ASCAP—Pleis, Pelaez] Songster has a plaintive date here.

FLOYD ROBINSON (RCA Victor 7789)

(B+) "WHY CAN'T IT GO ON" (2:29) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant] Fella wants a summer love affair to continue in this pleasing rock-a-cha statement from the singer and attractive combo-chorus support. Timely date with chances for success.

(B) "A GIRL LIKE YOU" (2:39) [Tree BMI—Robinson] Talent presents a more affectionate tribute to the loved-one.

ROOSEVELT GRIER (A 110)

(B+) "MOONLIGHT IN VERMONT" (2:36) [M. H. Goldsen ASCAP—Suessdorf, Blackburn] The N.Y. Giants' football player again tries a vocal stint, and does a commendable ballad job on the lovely mainstay. Rock-a-string accompaniment and short, punctuated chants from femmes. Could make some noise.

(B) "SMOKY MORNING" (2:35) [Ricki ASCAP—George, Allen] A low-down blues quality to the Grier reading here.

THE CHAPS (Brent 7016)

(B+) "ONE LOVELY YESTERDAY" (2:25) [Clifton BMI—Cenci, Sonny] Attractive nostalgic blend by the boys on the tender, moments-to-remember opus. Sufficient exposure could get side off-the-ground.

(B) "PERFECT NIGHT FOR LOVE" (2:12) [Westbury BMI—Cenci, Sonny] Team is on the upbeat here. Amiable sound.

ADRIENNE ALLEN (Yale 240)

(B) "WHEN LOVE COMES KNOCKING AT YOUR DOOR" (2:07) [Rensark BMI—Martin, Krasner] Sentimental thrush vocal receives a good, busy-beat romantic setting from the combo-chorus. Might get some exposure.

(C) "GO, GO, GO, TO MAMA" (2:06) [Rensark BMI—Martin, Krasner] Sound here is more in the sock-rock groove.

"THEME FROM THE DARK AT THE TOP OF THE STAIRS" (2:36)

[M. Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Steiner]

JACK PLEIS (Decca 31155)

"THEME FROM THE DARK AT THE TOP OF THE STAIRS" (2:25)

[M. Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Steiner]

"COME ON HOME" (2:25) [Post ASCAP—Freeman]

ERNIE FREEMAN (Imperial 5693)

Pic main-title themes continue to flourish on the wax scene. Three more fine instrumental readings of the "Theme From The Dark At The Top Of The Stairs" (Robert Holliday is represented on Everest) hit the market this week. They're Percy Faith's beat-ballad-with-strings Columbia slice, Jack Pleis' quick-moving, string-filled Decca performance and Ernie Freeman's organ highlighted cha cha stylings on Imperial. All three have the chart goods. Faith's warm backing is from the musical, "Irma La Douce," Pleis has a powerful entry in the "Sundowners" sweepstakes and Freeman has a catchy original.

"THEME FROM THE SUNDOWNERS" (2:35)

[M. Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Tiomkin]

"MINE ALONE" (2:40) [Burlington ASCAP—Strauss: Arr: Mantovani]

MANTOVANI (London 1946)

The beautiful, much-recorded "Theme From The Sundowners" receives an equally beautiful interpretation from the Mantovani ork. Tune should be well on its way within the next few weeks and the London crew's lush, soaring strings version will be biting off a big slice of the final sales pie. More of the same string enchantment on "Mine Alone" from Strauss' "Gypsy Baron." Side is in the "Mantovani Operetta Memories" LP.

"CRY CRY CRY" (2:38)

[Lion BMI—Malone]

"I'VE BEEN WRONG SO LONG" (2:24)

[Lion BMI—Malone]

BOBBY BLAND (Duke 327)

Bland can come thru in a big way with both ends of this new Duke session. They're two haunting, slow paced blues weepers, tagged "Cry Cry Cry" and "I've Been Wrong So Long," that Bland sells with money-making authority. Great pop-R&B double-header. Get with 'em.

"ITSY BITSY TEENIE WEENIE
YELLOW POLKADOT BIKINI" (2:30) [Ross Jungnickel
(1:53) [George Pincus & Sons
ASCAP—Vance, Pockriss]

ASCAP—Robertson, Blair]

HOMER & JETHRO (RCA Victor 7790)

It's more than likely that new versions of the Brian Hyland chart-topper, "Itsy Bitsy," and the Hank Locklin smasheroo, "Please Help Me, I'm Falling," will soon be making the chart rounds. They're by comedy-wax masters, Homer & Jethro, and the new sets of lyrics—red flannels instead of "Bikini" and crawling instead of "Falling"—make for real happy listening. Chet Atkins takes producer credits.

"TRUE LOVE CAN BE" (3:00) [Maraville BMI—Holden, Johnston]

"EVERYTHING'S GONNA BE ALRIGHT" (3:04)

[Maraville BMI—Holden, Johnston]

RON HOLDEN (Donna 1328)

Holden is back with a strong chart-contender that has a flavoring of his R&R-styled, Latin beat hit affair, "Love You So." This side's tabbed "True Love Can Be," and it features an infectious, teen-appealing vocal and instrumental sound. Things move along at a bluesy, rock-a-ballad pace on the lower stanza.

"LONELY HANDS" (2:12)

"YOUR LOVE" (2:39) [Roosevelt

[Big Billy BMI—Hamilton, Cook] BMI—Singleton, Evelyn, Cook]

ROY HAMILTON (Epic 9407)

This looks like the release that Roy Hamilton'll be riding back into hitsville with. One side displays Roy's warm, rich voice on a beautiful beat-ballad offering, titled "Lonely Hands." Opening and closing segments have the "Ebb Tide" sounds of the sea. The other half finds Roy and chorus rockin' with glee on dandy opus dubbed "Your Love." It's Chuck Sagle's crew flavorfully assisting in the backdrop.

IVY LEAGUE TRIO

(Coral 62229)

(B+) "IF YOU GO ACROSS THE SEA" (2:49) [Northern

ASCAP—O'Neil] Song team invitingly essays the pretty calypso-flavored lovey-dovey. Simple support maintains a calypso-ish feel.

(B) "I'M JUST A COUNTRY
BOY" (2:36) [Folkways BMI

—Brooks, Barer] Familiar folk effort gets a pleasant, easy-go warble from the boys.

THE CUMBERLAND THREE

(Roulette 4287)

(B+) "SO LONG (It's Been Good
To Know You)" (2:40) [Folkways BMI—Guthrie] New folk crew offers a rousing, authentic folk revival of the onetime Weavers' hit. Engaging number well-done.

(B) "HALLOWED GROUND"

(2:36) [Shaysee BMI—Stewart, Rubin] Beautiful Civil War item is sensitively handled by the team. From an album tagged "Civil War Almanac" (Vol. 2).

JIM LOWE (Decca 31153)

(B) "MAN OF THE CLOTH"

(2:45) [Sequence ASCAP—Tobias, Ballard] Unusual theme about a soldier who writes his girl that he has decided to become a man of the cloth is told with narrative-singing warmth by Lowe. Reverent combo-chorus backing. Off-beat tale that could come-up with important plays.

(B) "SOMEONE ELSE'S ARMS"
(2:05) [Trinity BMI—Lowe]

Country-styled disenchanted here.

LITTLE GUY & THE GIANTS

(Lawn 103)

(B+) "SO YOUNG" (2:08) [Republican BMI—Spencer, Crier, Johnson] Songsters pleasingly essay the tuneful rock-ballad against a good Latinish combo setting. Kids will enjoy a hearing.

(B) "IT'S YOU" (2:16) [Republican BMI—Spencer, Crier, Johnson]

Somewhat more harder beat to this portrayal. Good tune again.

WAYNE & RAY (Adonis 110)

(B) "FOR YOUR PRECIOUS
LOVE" (2:35) [Jamie BMI—Redd]

Song duo offers a feelingful survey of the pretty, country-styled affectionate. Simple combo backing. Side carries good teen-ballad authority.

(B) "PEGGY" [B.F. Wood-Madara, Scott]

Boys again take good romantic care of an affectionate. Both tracks are worth turntable action.

CRAIG ALDEN (Jamie 1166)

(B+) "CRAZY LITTLE HORN"
(2:25) [Shapiro Bernstein

ASCAP—Shuman, Carr] Affable, "Itsy Bitsy"-like sound to this romantic novelty. Vocalist Alden is backed by cheerful femmes, Latin-rock beat and horn sounds. It'll get spins.

(B) "GOGGLE-EYE'D" (2:18)

[Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—Shuman, Carr] Catchy item that also owes something to the "Itsy Bitsy" smash.

HANS GEORGE (Palette 5052)

(B) "MELODIE SICILIANO"
(2:09) [Zodiac BMI—De Bie]

George's "Silver Strings" do a pretty job (against a triplet sound) on the pleasing melody. Both teen-adult audiences will appreciate the arrangement.

(B) "MARIANDL" (2:30)

[Bourne ASCAP—Long, Nachman] A similar string story is told here. Vibes get a featured role.

ADAM FAITH (Cub 9074)

(B+) "I DID WHAT YOU TOLD ME" (1:54) [Robbins ASCAP

—Barry, Peacock] English rock songster gives-out with pro teen sounds as he handles a slick medium-beat ditty. Strings are a strong part of the setting. "Beat Girl" is the number's film source.

(B) "JOHNNY COMES MARCHING
HOME" (1:58) [P.D.]

The Civil War opus gets a teen rewrite, and is effectively rendered by Faith and the strings.

THE BAYSIDERS (Everest 19386)

(B) "LOOK FOR THE SILVER
LINING" (2:20) [T. B. Harms

ASCAP—DeSylva, Kern] Vocalists offer an off-the-melody reading of the standard ala the Demensions' noise-making version of "Rainbow." Could grab some coin.

(B) "TREES" (2:40) [G. Schirmer
Jerry Vogel ASCAP—Kilmer,

Rasbach] Similar warm-beat expression on the familiar number.

JIMMY STARR (Laurel 1015)

(B) "ADELE" (1:54) [Sepe Janon
ASCAP—Villafane, Marino]

Good rhythmic touch to Starr's handling of the name-song. Combo delivers a catchy beat. Deck tells a teen story in pro fashion. Let the kids hear it.

(C+) "BLUE BROKEN HEART"
(1:56) [Janon Sepe ASCAP—

Fraley, Mayhew, MacGregor] Opus with a country feel is warmly read.

MARTHA CARSON (Capitol 4437)

(B) "EVERYTHING'S ALRIGHT"
(2:08) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Carson]

The country inspirational thrush returns to the label with a bright, gospel-type outing. Chrous and combo offer spirited support.

(B) "HIGH ON THE HILL"
(2:01) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Carson]

The artist is more deliberate in another gospel-type reading.

JACKIE RANDELL (Jubilee 5393)

(B+) "WILL YOU STILL BE MY GIRL" (2:15) [Heatherfield

BMI—Mure, Wolf] Infectious track from the songster and gal chorus-combo. Femmes have a cheerful chant gimmick. Tune is catchy. Joyful romantic that deserves spins.

(B) "LETTER OF LOVE" (2:30)

[Some BMI—Randell] Highlight of this affectionate is the striking setting, featuring an electric guitar in a Latin-rock beat. Also worth attention.

"WAR PAINT" (2:17) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Greenfield]
"COUNTING TEARDROPS" (2:05) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Greenfield]
BARRY MANN (ABC-Paramount 10143)

"War Paint" has what it takes to pave the way for hit tunesmith Barry Mann's rise to record heights. The artist's bow, under the Ampar banner, tells the delightful tale of a gal who's making herself up for a date with the boy next door. Mann's sock vocal is backed up in tremendous, hard beat rock-a-cha fashion on a deck that can go all the way. However, don't overlook the similarly styled "Counting Teardrops" portion. It's a tantalizing slice that also has the chart strength. Deck's a Nevins-Kirshner product.

"PSYCHO" (2:27) [Olimac BMI—McPhatter, Oliver]
"TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE" (2:13) [BMI—Sylvia, McKinney]
BOBBY HENDRICKS (Sue 732)

Hendricks, who's had that "Itchy Twitchy Feeling" to get back on the charts for some time, can make it this time out. Side, dubbed "Psycho" (no relation to the flick), is an engaging quick beat'er that finds the therapist analyzing his romantic problems. The wax-buying teeners should help speed his recovery. A colorful thumper completes the pairing.

"I'M GONNA CRY (IF YOU QUIT ME)" (2:50)
[Jobete BMI—Robinson, Gordy]
"WHIRLWIND" (2:10) [Jobete BMI—Bradford, Strong]
BARRETT STRONG (Tamla 54003)

The "Money" man, Barrett Strong, can have a chart item with this Tamla outing. Tune, tagged "I'm Gonna Cry," is an emotion-packed affair that Strong and the Rayber voices belt out with telling effect. Fetching, quick beat undercut finds Barrett caught in a romantic "Whirlwind."

"CAVE MAN" (2:25) [Arc BMI—Temple, Johnson]
"FEEL SO BAD" (2:15) [Arc, Playmate BMI—Temple, Johnson]
THE VIBRATIONS (Checker 961)

The Vibrations, who stirred up territorial chart interest with their "So Blue" reading, can go all the way with this one. It's a steady-beat novelty thumper, tagged "Cave Man," that's chock full of commercial vocal and instrumental sounds. The heartfelt beat-ballad coupler also has an eye on the charts.

"STRANGE KISSES" (2:29) "JUST A MEMORY" (2:37)
[Glad BMI—J. P. Richardson] [Big Bopper BMI—Fred, Bryan]
ROD BERNARD (Mercury 71689)

Chances are Rod Bernard will climb back into the hit listings with either end, or both, of his newest Mercury outing. Tabbed "Strange Kisses" and "Just A Memory," they're two chorus-backed, ballad-with-a-beat romancers tailored for teen tastes. Former was penned by the late Big Bopper (J. P. Richardson).

"BEFORE THIS DAY ENDS" (2:47)
[Moss Rose BMI—McAlpin, Wilson, Drusky]
"JUST OUT OF REACH" (2:39) [Four Star Sales BMI—Stewart]
EDDY ARNOLD (RCA Victor 7794)

Here's a switch. George Hamilton IV, previous pop hit-maker, has a big country item in "Before This Day Ends." Now Eddy Arnold, ace country-pop performer, comes thru with a fine pop-oriented reading of the tune. Eddy warbles with touching sincerity on this romantic weeper set to a slow, steady dramatic beat. "Just Out Of Reach" is a lilter from the ultra-lovely category. Watch it, too. Chet Atkins produced the lid.

"NEW ORLEANS" (2:44) [Pepe BMI—Guida, Royster]
"PLEASE FORGIVE ME" (2:17) [Pepe BMI—Anderson]
U.S. BONDS (Legrand 819)

The new Legrand label should have it easy selling U.S. Bonds. It's the tag of their newcomer, who has a terrific new entry about the oft wax-popularized city, "New Orleans." It's a bright, chorus-backed hand-clapper showcased by a attention-getting rockin' musical assist. Watch it take off. Persuasive beat-ballad pleader, flipside.

RICHARD BERRY
(Warner Bros. 5164)

(B+) "IT'S ALL RIGHT" (2:25)
[Maverick BMI—Berry]
Cheerful blues-bouncer is rendered with appropriate zest by the songster and combo-chorus backing. Kids will find the deck a likeable entry.

[Maverick BMI—Berry] An appealing bidin'-my-time approach here.

FORD EAGLIN (Imperial 5692)

(B) "THAT CERTAIN DOOR" (1:53) [Commodore BMI—Bartholomew] Fine down-home blues warbling by the blues songster. Combo has a steady-beat sound.

(B) "BY THE RIVER" (2:35)
[Reeve BMI—Bartholomew, King] Even more deliberate-blues pacings by the performer and accompaniment.

MICKEY GARRELL (Tammy 1009)

(B) "I'M SEARCHIN'" (2:47)
[Fiore BMI—March] Garrell and the combo-chorus offer a catchy teen-beat date. Guitars are the feature of the backdrop arrangement. Deck plays a slick teen game.

(C+) "NEVER TOO LATE" (2:45)
[Fiore BMI—March] Slower tempo for the teen-trade.

DAVE DIXON
(Home of the Blues 108)

(B) "YOU DON'T LOVE ME NO MORE" (2:30) [Sar-Lib BMI—Brown, Mitchell, Dixon] Dixon's got a suave local manner similar to the Billy Eckstine of big band days. He renders this blues ballad with deep-toned sincerity. Spinnable material.

(B) "YOU SATISFY" (2:30)
[Sar-Lib BMI—Brown, Cherry] Here the songster swings out brightly on an infectious upbeat blues turn.

MORT GARSON (MGM 12897)

(B+) "SHOO BIRD" (1:59) [Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—Garson] Whacky, rock-inspired ork workout. Sax is the top sound, but other wild sounds are important to the no-holds-barred approach. Might catch-on.

(B) "MADAGASCAR" (1:50)
[Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—Garson] Sax again leads the way in this engaging calypso-flavored instrumental.

BILLY MYLES (King 5395)

(B) "DANCE LITTLE GIRLIE" (1:57) [Selbenn-Stebrita BMI—Myles] Lively dancetime outing for the kids, with Myles offering a semi-belt with busy chorus-combo work. Good hop piece.

(C+) "TWO EMPTY ARMS" (One Broken Heart) (2:15) [Selbenn-Stebrita BMI—Myles] Title indicates the plaintive pose here.

MARY WELLS (Motown 1003)

(B+) "BYE BYE BABY" (2:52)
[Jobete BMI—Wells] Blues thrush deftly delivers the upbeat plaintive and receives a contagious combo sound. Has a sound that's good for both blues-pop exposure.

(C+) "PLEASE FORGIVE ME" (2:38) [Jobete BMI—Wells] More soul to the performer's blues statement here.

BOBBY LILE (Imperial 5690)

(B) "LITTLE BIT" (2:05) [Four Star Sales BMI—Lile] Likeable rock-a-cha about a gal whose size is just a "little bit," but is nevertheless liked by the guy.

(C+) "MY BIG MISTAKE" (2:07)
[Travis BMI—Lile] Organ is part of the backing in Lile's reading of the countryish plaintive.

DUKE & THE AMBERS (Stroll 109)

(B) "VOLCANO" (2:20) [Skyrocket BMI—Duke, The Ambers] An instrumental that plays a pro sock-rock teen game. Rock sounds are shared by guitars, percussion and sax. Youngsters will dig the goings-on.

(C+) "JOANIE" (2:35) [Skyrocket BMI—Duke, The Ambers] Songsters enter the scene with a moving statement for the teeners.

THE TRETONES (B-W 604)

(C+) "COOL BEAT" (2:25) [B-W BMI—Copley] Some of the setting sounds have a worthwhile teen touch in this generally conventional medium-beat outing by the songsters.

(C) "BLIND DATE" (2:54) [B-W BMI—Musselman] Ordinary beat-ballad blend.

BROTHERS SISTERS
(Mercury 71678)

(B) "STRAWBERRY SHORT-CAKE" (Huckleberry Pie) (1:59) [Paulsam ASCAP—Kaye, Loman] Larks offer a light-hearted stint as they describe a gal's sweetie-pie. Amiable teen-beat jumper.

(B) "CRYSTAL BALL" (2:17)
[Randolph ASCAP—Barlow, Steele, Fulton] Is there romance in the gal's future? asks the team in this pleasing rock-a-cha date. Tune is effective, and strings make striking comments.

TED RUSSELL & RHYTHM ROCKERS
(Glee 0568)

(B+) "REAL COOL" (2:15) [Faye BMI—Russell] Guitar-led team creates an intriguing teen instrumental sound. Besides the guitar drive, the percussion section hands-in effective work. Could show-up.

(B) "BRANG" (2:08) [Faye BMI—Bentty] This one's a rockin' pounder. Top-half is more original.

HAROLD DORMAN (Rita 119)

(B+) "MOVED TO KANSAS CITY" (2:00) [Rolyn BMI—Dorman] Dorman, who has chart experience ("Mountain of Love"), is heard in a cheerful-beat stint much in the "Mountain" manner. Sound could win Dorman another chart berth.

(B) "TAKE A CHANCE ON ME" (1:58) [Rolyn BMI—Dorman] Dorman's statement here carries impressive teen-sensitivity.

THE MELLOKINGS (Herald 554)

(B+) "KID STUFF" (2:23) [Aldon BMI—Gorgoni, Perloth] The Mellokings, whose "Tonight, Tonight," is a long-standing R&B-pop favorite, can step way out with this easy-going charmer. Side, culled from their "Tonight" package, rates loads of attention.

(B) "I PROMISE" (2:13) [Angel BMI] Under end's a fetching up tempo shuffler.

DORIS DAY (Columbia 41791)

(B+) "DAFFA DOWN DILLY" (1:42) [Daywin BMI—Harbert, Harbert] Bright, engaging pseudo-hillbilly novelty statement from the songstress. Ork-chorus has a lively hoe-down flavor. The performer could have a click here.

(B+) "WHAT DOES A WOMAN DO" (3:01) [Artists ASCAP—Anderson, Wrubel] Miss Day turns right around and gives a touching account of a searching ballad from a pic tagged "Midnight Lace."

COUNT BASIE ORCH.
(Roulette 4286)

(B+) "OL' MAN RIVER" (Part 2) (2:25) [T. B. Harms ASCAP—Kern, Hammerstein] In this second section date on the classic, Basie opens with a protracted, fast tinkling reading of the tune, and then wild percussion & brass stuff takes-over. Interesting Basie sound that could get big acceptance.

(B) "OL' MAN RIVER" (Part 1) (2:30) [T. B. Harms ASCAP—Kern, Hammerstein] Band blazes from the beginning in this initial take on the tune. Sessions are a sampling from the ork's album, "Not Now, I'll Tell You When."

GRANT EVANS (Prominent 1)

(B+) "ROTS - A - RUCK" (2:25) [Marc-Mart BMI—Nathan-son, Antel] Cheerful rock-a-cha novelty from the singer and sprightly femme chorus-combo accompaniment. Item can catch-on with both the teeners & moppets. Eye it.

(B) "TOO SHY TO SAY" (2:29) [Marc-Mart BMI—Nathan-son, Antel] Vocalist offers a beat-ballad session here.

DOROTHY COLLINS
(Top Rank 207)

(B+) "UNLOCK THOSE CHAINS" (2:53) [Gil BMI—Wolfe, Soloway] A country-type ballad is taken for a colorful teen-beat ride. Talent's sometimes multi-tracked vocal receives a lively rock-a-string (& chorus) setting. May have a chart future.

(B) "I'LL BE YOURS, YOU'LL BE MINE" (2:38) [Panther ASCAP—Skylar, Gonneau] Another bright stand by the lark and accompaniment.

THE COPYCATS (Prince 50-61)

(B+) "CHIEF SITTIN' BULL" (2:40) [Criterion ASCAP—Kronides, Hansen] Writers have penned a humorous "answer" to the "Mr. Custer" smash, and the vocalists-combo present it ala the "Custer" deck. Here, a prisoner of "Sittin' Bull" pleads for his freedom. Could happen.

(B) "THE ABOMINABLE SNOW-MAN" (2:45) [Criterion ASCAP—Wood, Gallop] A whacky tale—shrieks and all—about the famed fake-or-factual inhabitant of the Himalayas.

FELICE BRYANT (Hickory 1127)

(B+) "COMPLETELY (Meravigliose Labbra)" (1:57) [Acuff—Rose BMI—Bryant, Sabel, Useilli] Thrush, who with her husband, Boudleaux, writes some of the top hits, does a pretty job on the haunting, Italian-flavored item (sung here in English). Big ork-chorus sound supports. Deck could make it.

(B) "WE COULD" (2:42) [Acuff—Rose BMI—Bryant] Inviting ballad stint on Miss Bryant's own country-styled composition.

JOHNNY McKAY
(United Artists 245)

(B+) "GARDEN OF LOVE" (1:45) [January BMI—Pitney] Charm-beat rhythmic by the songster and colorful ork-chorus backing. Lyrics nicely compare the gal's attributes with various flowers. Can score.

(B) "WHO CAN SAY" (2:00) [Almimo BMI—Barberis, Weinstein, Randazzo] McKay pleasingly handles the above-par teen-ballad. Attractive wistful.

THE WANDERERS (Cub 9075)

(B+) "I COULD MAKE YOU MINE" (2:12) [Sequence BMI—David, Bachrach] This ballad-with-a-beat romantic pretty, warmly cut by the Wanderers, has the goods to make the teeners sit up and take notice. Watch it closely.

(B) "I NEED YOU MORE" (2:27) [Sheldon BMI—Reid, Kosloff, Elias] This half is a lovely item that cruises along at a soft cha cha clip.

RICHIE RICHARDSON (Galaxy 103)

(C+) "I LIKE IT LIKE THAT" (2:05) [Glad BMI—Richardson] Singer and accompaniment nicely relate the catchy affectionate. OK teen-trade attraction.

(C+) "THE JUMP" (2:15) [Glad BMI—Richardson] Artist has a rougher sound as he and the musicians pound the ditty out.

BILL WARREN (Shasta 141)

(C+) "THEY CAN'T TAKE THAT AWAY FROM ME" (2:40) [Chappell & Gershwin ASCAP—G&I Gershwin] Warren takes a pleasantly relaxed view of the great oldie. Light-beat ivories head the simple combo support.

(C) "THIS NIGHT I'LL REMEMBER" (2:18) [Mono BMI—Wakely, Trost] Intimate pose with a Latinish setting.

JOE HARNELL (Epic 9406)

(B) "WITHOUT A SONG" (2:27) [Miller ASCAP—Eliscu, Rose, Youmans] From the pianist's LP devoted to Vincent Youmans' songs comes this brisk keyboard-string reading of the famed song. Gimmicky sound that has commercial chances.

(B) "TIME ON MY HANDS" (2:14) [Miller ASCAP—Adamson, Gordon, Youmans] A cha-cha look at another standard from Youmans' catalog. Also from the LP.

CONNIE RUSSELL
(United Artists 252)

(B+) "LOVE YOU KNOW NOTHING ABOUT" (1:50) [January BMI—Pitney] Vet thrush bids for teen acceptance with a pro rock-a-string rhythmic about a fella who knows his history & geography, but falls flat when it comes to love. Bright stuff that could make some noise.

(B) "THE SECOND TIME AROUND" (3:01) [Miller ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] Pretty ballad serves as an appealing legit warble by the songstress.

CHRIS TYLER (Kim 103)

(C+) "NOW IS THE HOUR" (2:30) [Leeds ASCAP—Kalihan, Clement, Scott, Stewart] Sentimental oldie is presented with inviting warm-beat phrasing by the singer and setting, which includes a soft slap beat throughout. Femme recitation also included.

(C+) "AS LONG AS I'M MOVING" (2:34) [Progressive BMI—Calvert] The slap bit is naturally more prominent in this hearty, if familiar rocker.

ROYCE CLARK (Veeda 4007)

(B) "WALKING IN THE MOONLIGHT" (2:06) [Lemarc BMI—Clark] Catchy romantic work by the vocalist and femme chorus-combo support. Teeners will find an interesting beat here.

THE STARLETS (Lute 5909)

(B) "I'M SO YOUNG" (2:20) [Kavelin-Vance BMI—Tyus] Larks offer a good semi-dramatic teen-ballad turn. Front femme handles the familiar theme against chanting by the rest of the team.

(B) "HE'S GOT IT!" (1:45) [Kavelin BMI—Daniels] Guy's got money in this pounding novelty.

FABULOUS FLAMES
(Bay-Tone 105)

(B) "I'M SO ALL ALONE" [Bay-Tone BMI—Holland] Blues songsters—who backed up James Brown—present a good-sounding, light shuffle-beat ballad date. Waxing merits both pop-R&B time.

(C+) "LOVER" (2:46) [Bay-Tone BMI—Johnson, Taylor] A cud-dling-blues blend in this corner. Tune is not the standard.

SCOTTY McKAY (Ace 603)

(B) "LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL" [Aladdin BMI—Lee] The old Shirley & Lee hit (they recently revived opus on Warwick, and are hitting with it, gets a fine, appropriately belting version by the songster and pounding combo. Solid rock life to waxing.

(B) "LITTLE LIZA JAME" [Ace BMI—Klein, McKay] The folk favorite is brought back to pro sock-rock advantage.

LOREZ ALEXANDRIA (Argo 5371)

(B) "I ALMOST LOST MY MIND" (2:50) [St. Louis BMI—Hunter] Stylist attractively eases over the old Ivory Joe Hunter blueser while a band provides a soft, jazzy sound. Good listening.

(B) "DON'T EXPLAIN" (3:00) [Northern ASCAP—Holiday, Herzog] More of a moody stand in this outing on the sensitive oldie. Both sides stem from an LP.

FOY WILLIAMS (20th Fox 210)

(B) "SIX FEET OF EARTH (Make Us All One Size)" (2:43) [Randy-Smith ASCAP—Smith] A "Sixteen Tons"-like theme is rendered with a lush ork-chorus sound. There's both a catchy tune and narrative. Interesting affair.

BOBBY CHARLES (Imperial 5691)

(B+) "FOUR WINDS" (2:00) [Commodore BMI—Domino, Bartholomew] Charles has a good-sounding revival of the catchy oldie. His reading is supported by a steady, sometimes driving combo format. Deck could show-up.

(B) "NOTHING SWEET AS YOU" (1:55) [Commodore BMI—Montgomery, Mitchell, Bartholomew] Pleasing, sweet sound to the performer's portrayal of the nice statement.

ROY JONES & THE SHELLS (Swirl 101)

(B+) "SATISFIED" (2:18) [Audicon & Geneva BMI—Kelly, King] There's a solid light rhythm-blues touch to the Jones vocal and catchy, medium-beat arrangement from the combo-chorus. Tune has lots of teen merit, too. Enough exposure, and deck could mean something.

(B+) "MADE FOR LOVERS" (2:14) [Audicon BMI—Jones, Johnson] Pro sounds again as Jones and friends deliver a fine Latinish rock-romantic. Can also succeed.

STEVE ALLEN (Signature 12044)

(B+) "IMPOSSIBLE" (3:00) [Rosemeadow ASCAP—Allen] The TV personality's familiar shrieking laughter, as tries to do a trumpet stint on his own tune, could get the deck hefty humor spins. Better watch for action.

(B) "DANCE TIME" (3:33) [Rosemeadow ASCAP—Allen] Allen offers a satire on the old radio remotes from dance restaurants.

WAYNE HICKMAN (Capitol 4445)

THE DOLPHINS (Shad 5020)

(B+) "I FOUND TRUE LOVE" (2:07) [Brent BMI—Dolphins] Team's lead gives a strong account of the dramatic ballad while remaining members offer subtle chants. Commanding rock-a-string sound. A side that has potential.

(B) "TELL TALE KISSES" (2:19) [Clifton BMI—Dolphins] Latinish sound backs the group's big-sounding blend on the number. Strings are again effective.

DON WYATT (Colpix 164)

(B+) "OH! I NEVER KNEW" (2:07) [Teresa BMI—Johnson, Porter] Lots of Stateside rhythmic know-how to this master-purchase from Australia. Deep-voiced Wyatt leads the way, and the combo-chorus provides a contagious sound. Could have chart stature.

(B) "HONEY" (2:02) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Simons, Gillespie, Whiting] Oldie is warmly stated by the songster.

B. B. KING (Kent 350)

(B+) "WALKING DR. BILL" (3:10) [Modern BMI—King, Josea] Could be important R&B news for this struttin' blueser by the star blues artist and combo. Should be eyed closely.

(B) "YOU DONE LOST YOUR GOOD THING NOW" (3:13) [Modern BMI—King, Josea] Deliberate blues comments in this corner.

COZY COLE (King 5390)

(B+) "THE POGO HOP" (2:17) [Kip BMI—Kelly, Catalon, Cole] Drummer provides effective percussion sounds in this interesting, jazz-type blueser. Piano & sax contribute important sounds. Arrangement grows-on-you; could step-out.

(B) "HA-HA CHA-CHA" (2:43) [Kip BMI—Cole, Kelly, Baker] Musicians move at a brighter pace in this blend of the cha-cha & rock 'n' roll.

CARLO SAVINA/PAOLO BACILIERI (Dot 16128)

(B+) "PIZZA ON THE PIAZZA" (1:29) [Famous ASCAP—Cicognini, Savina] Charming, colorful instrumental excerpt from the soundtrack of the Clark Gable-Sophia Loren starrer, "It Happened In Naples." It has the touch of "Never On Sunday." Could get around.

(B) "STAY WITH ME (Resta Cu'mme)" (3:14) [Leeds ASCAP—Modugno, Verde, Gabler] Paolo Bacilieri sings a ballad from the pic. Both ends are from a soundtrack LP.

THE BLONDETTES (MGM 12940)

(B+) "LITTLE BUTTERFLY" (2:20) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Carter, Dinning] Gals blend appealingly on a nice romantic as dainty as a butterfly. Girl tells her mom that she's ready to "try her wings." Pretty side.

(B) "MY LOVE (Is Many Things)" (2:05) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Carter, Dinning] Team remains soft and sincere.

JANICE RADO (Edsel 782)

(B+) "I'M COMING HOME" (2:05) [Daywin BMI—Rado, Johnston] Lark's blues-styled sentiments are good-sounding, and could make some noise with sufficient airtime. Simple combo-chorus statement lets the performer's work remain in the spotlight.

(B) "THIS FEELING" (2:03) [Maravilla BMI—Rado] Another sincere side from the talent.

THE PHANTOMS (Original Sound 11)

(B+) "NIGHT THEME" (2:31) [Laura BMI—Peterson, Cogswell] Combo effectively gets the funky attitude of the interesting theme. There's also a Mark 11 version on Wye.

(B) "NIGHT BEAT" (2:11) [Bonnyview ASCAP—Freeman] Kids should welcome the various percussion gimmicks in this instrumental.

DENNIS PENNA (Musitron 105)

(B) "BATTLE OF THE DUALS" (2:39) [Discmaker's ASCAP—Penna, Scarpeli] Drag race doings in this sock slicing. Penna's vocal is assisted by wild guitar statements and raacing-car sounds.

(C+) "BETTY" (2:43) [Discmaker's ASCAP—Penna, Scarpeli] Prominent echo-chamber effect in this sentimental-rock try.

THE CENTURYS (Veltone 104)

(B+) "STROLLIN' TIME" (2:25) [B-Flat BMI—Larson, Marcellino, Fite] Popular teen-step is relayed with generally striking remarks by the instrumentalists. Guitars-growling sax-organ get solid solo chances. Might do things.

(B) "PARADIDDLE" (2:20) [B-Flat BMI—Larson, Marcellino, Fite] In a belt date, musicians do a pro job.

WAYNE WALKER (Everest 19380)

(B) "LOVE, LOVE, LOVE" (2:08) [Cedarwood BMI—Pierce] It's a good rock-a-string retelling of the years-back Webb-Pierce country hit. Walker's essay has a pro light-beat blues approach. Sound in the current teen way.

(B) "SOFT CHAINS OF LOVE" (2:37) [Cedarwood BMI—Jarrett] Pose here is more sentimental.

CURTIS KNIGHT (Horton 0001)

(B+) "BABY, THAT'S WHERE IT'S AT" (2:51) [Sampson Horton BMI—McNear, Horton] A delight for the teeners, vocally and musically. A stomping super-charged beat steamrolls Knight across the grooves in top shouting fashion.

(B) "YOU DON'T HAVE TO TELL ME" (2:12) [Sampson Horton BMI—McNear, Horton] Again the beat's the thing, though the songster gives it a softer voiced display.

KING KROONERS/LITTLE ROCO (Excelllo 2187)

(B) "MEMOIRS" (2:16) [Excelllorec BMI—Corley] New rhythm & blues group bows on a stirring beat-ballad date. Husky-voiced lead does the effective mid-deck recitation.

(B) "SCHOOL DAZE" (2:21) [Excelllorec BMI—Corley] Timely offering putting down the return to school is a contagious revamping of the ancient "School Days" rhyme.

LATTIMORE BROWN (Zil 9006)

(C+) "CHICK CHICK, CHICKY CHICK" (2:51) [Excelllorec BMI—Brown] Brisk paced rhythmic session on which Brown has the support of femme voices. Good toe-tapping feeling. Label is a Nashboro affiliate.

(C+) "ALWAYS MY LOVE" (2:01) [Excelllorec BMI—Brown] Inviting rockacha cha romantic is the sentimental coupler.

CHICAGO:

RCA-Victor's Stan Pat has been making the rounds with several brand new items, among which is the latest effort by that zany pair Homer & Jethro. It's their hilarious rendition of "Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Yellow Polka Dot Bikini" which is keeping deejays howling. Incidentally, Earl mentioned that 'nature boy' Abhan Abbez has recently completed an album on Delfi and plans are in progress for a cross country promotion tour which Abhan will make, on foot. "Fiorello!" In Chicago

CHICAGO—Bob Carroll, star of the Chicago production of "Fiorello!" which opened at the Shubert Theatre Sept. 6, is pictured in the top photo presenting a copy of Capitol's original cast album of the show to Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley.

Then employees of the Chicago branch of CRDC partook in a parade through the downtown section heralding the opening. In the middle photo are Al Tremener, proprietor of Little Al's Record Stores, portraying Fiorello, and (in the driver's seat) George Gerkin and Earl Horowitz. The Capitol reps in the bottom photo are Barney Fields, Hal Gold, Earl Horowitz, George Gerkin, Bill Vesely, Rocky Catena, Mauri Lathowers and Ron Tennant.

Fire & Fury Enter Fall With New Singles, 1st LP's

NEW YORK—The Fire & Fury labels have moved into the fall season with a number of important "big-guns" single issues, and the debut of LP lines. In addition, a jazz LP line is in the works under the Fling banner, a subsid of Fire & Fury.

New singles on Fury include: Wilbert Harrison's "Little School Girl" and "Since I Fell For You"; The Starlights' "Valarie"; Sam Myers' "You Don't Have To Go" and "Sad Sad Lonesome Day"; Fire is represented with: The Upsetters' (formerly Little Richards' Rockin' Band) "Jay-walkin'" and "Steppin' Out"; Gay-poppers' "I've Got It" and "I Wanna Know."

There's a jazz single on Fling, "Piano Tuner" by Curley Hamner & Cooper Bros., formerly featured with the Lionel Hampton Band.

Currently hitting for the label is "Is You Is Or Is You Ain't My Baby" by Buster Brown.

Two LP's that bow the package line are "Goin' To Kansas City" by Wilbert Harrison (Fury) and "New King Of The Blues" by Buster Brown (Fire). These LP's will be followed-up by a regular release schedule by artists from Fire & Fury.

Galkin Joins Lubinsky Labels

NEWARK—Joe Galkin has joined the Savoy-World Wide disk operation as sales manager, topper Herman Lubinsky announced last week. Galkin formerly was associated with Big Top Records.

Big Success Marks Command's 1st Anny

NEW YORK—Command Records, the Enoch Light "sound" label, celebrates its first anniversary this month with a solid standing in the LP community. Thus far, the diskery has released ten LP's and, according to the firm, they have an average sale of over 100,000. The two top sellers are "Persuasive Percussion," and "Provocative Percussion," both still high on the stereo LP charts. In addition to the label's own success, the popularity of its product has brought about a new interest in higher-priced "sound" LP's, with many other diskeries now represented with their "deluxe" package lines.

September also marks a year since the purchase of the four labels under the Grand Award Record Co. banner by the Am-Par Record Co. The labels—including Command—are Grand Award, Colortone, and Waldorf King Size.

Capitol Issues Nat Cole LP Musical With $100,000 Production Tag

HOLLYWOOD—"Wild Is Love," a Nat King Cole musical LP with a reported $100,000 production tag, is being released this week by Capitol Records. An original production especially created for records, the LP features music & lyrics by Ray Rasch and Dotty Wayne, arranged and conducted by Nelson Riddle.

In the elaborately packaged album, Cole ties together a dozen new ballad & blues numbers with a romantic storyline. In addition to the recording itself, the album features a twenty-four page booklet containing twelve full-color photo portraits executed by Kee Veeder, nationally known photographer and head of Capitol's photographic arts department. Each portrait depicts a different mood found in the LP.

As a bonus feature, "Wild Is Love" will be offered to consumers—through December 31—at special intro prices of $5.98 in monaural, $6.98 in stereo. After the first of the year, the prices will be $7.98 and $8.98, respectively.

According to Cole, the package is the "biggest thrill" of his 18-year recording career with Capitol. "Every artist is constantly searching for something else," he said, "and if he's lucky, every now and then he finds it. . . I believe I found it in 'Wild Is Love.'"

Capitol producer Lee Gillette says the LP is the "finest recording I have been associated with." Riddle said it was "Cole's greatest effort."

Frank Music Sets New Promotional Treatment For "Unsinkable Molly B."

NEW YORK—Meredith Wilson's new Broadway musical, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," will receive a new concept of exploitation it was disclosed last week by Frank Music-Rinimer Corp., publishers of the score. At a cocktail party held last week at the Warwick Hotel the publishers revealed their intention to restrict the entire "Molly Brown" score from all public performances until Nov. 21, three weeks after its Nov. 3 New York opening at the Winter Garden Theatre.

This restriction is in direct opposition to the mode of promotion popular over the past few years, in which publishers brought songs from show scores to the attention of the public before the show opened to buttress box office sales and to lend an additional promotion jolt for the all-important first four weeks of audience word-of-mouth following the review. Doing this, publishers hoped a hit song would emerge in time for the Broadway premiere. Some successful examples of this program were "They Say It's Wonderful" from "Annie Get Your Gun," "Some Enchanted Evening" from "South Pacific," "Stranger In Paradise" from "Kismet" and "Hey There" and "Hernando's Hideaway" from "The Pajama Game."

In a letter sent last week to record industry executives, Stuart Ostrow, vice president of Frank Music, pointed out that "This new concept guarantees you time to analyze what your recording investment should be after the production is a fact. On Nov. 4 you will have sufficient time and reason to proceed with any song from the score on the same first basis as anyone else." Ostrow further explained that this plan will save recording companies time, money and effort which they would have spent recording and promoting songs from a show that would soon flop. Now, critical reaction and public acceptance would be known and reasonably evaluated before recording.

In a letter to broadcasters, Dore Schary and the Theatre Guild, producers of the show, explained the advantages of this plan to radio stations—pointing out that valuable programming time would not be expended on playing the original cast album and individual numbers from a failure. They too will have ample evaluation time after the show opens.

Another innovation in promoting the show is the release to recording companies and artists an LP demo of ten numbers from the show, and the sheet music for these ten songs. This too will allow artists and execs to evaluate first hand the relative merit of the songs. Ordinarily, a publisher of a show will groom four or five songs for industry-wide release. "The release of ten from 'Molly Brown,' said Ostrow, proves our faith in the wealth of material in this score, and all ten, we believe, have popular and standard potential."

Album jackets and sheet music folders have been prepared in attractive two-color wrappings; the album containing explanatory notes outlining the plot of the show, giving information concerning personnel in the show and detailing how the tunes work into the story. Both album and sheet music also contain information generally requested by A&R men.

Officers of the new company are as follows: Leonard W. Schneider, president; Nat Tarnopol, executive vice president; Martin P. Salkin, vice president; Sydney N. Goldberg, vice president, and Dick Jacobs, vice president. Negotiations for the formation of the company were conducted by Harold Orenstein, of the firm of Orenstein & Arrow, legal counsel for Tarnopol.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Mark Dinning

Mark Dinning, having rocketed to stardom via "Teen Angel," has now settled comfortably into a hit pattern by following up his smash with "A Star Is Born" and the current "The Lovin' Touch."

A member of the richly-endowed Nashville club—he also reaped the harvest of his first rewards in that city—Dinning now frequents the area doing personal appearances and nitery dates as well as his recording sessions.

The MGM star was born in 1933 in Grant County, Okla., the youngest of nine children fathered by an evangelist song leader. His first professional musical precedent was set by three of his older sisters who, as the Dinning Sisters, enjoyed pop disk stardom some years ago. A tour in the Army followed high school graduation, after which Mark settled in Nashville. He now calls Nashville home.

Bob Luman

"Let's Think About The Living" is Bob Luman's answer to recent tragedy-riddled hits, earning him the recognition of disk stardom on Warner Bros.

Born April 15, 1938 in Nacodoches, Texas, Luman was at one time tempted to enter professional sports, having excelled at baseball among others in high school. In fact, several baseball scouts dangled inviting contracts before his young eyes. But the impression he made upon Johnny Cash, Johnny Horton and Carl Perkins during an amateur contest in Tyler, Texas, moving them to naming him top man, convinced the youngster to entrench himself in music.

In the short time since his high school graduation Luman has appeared on the "Louisiana Hayride," headed his own TV show out of Shreveport, La., was a regular member of the "Town Hall Party" TV'er in Los Angeles, and has appeared in several movies. "Let's Think About the Living" is proving an enormous boost to his career.

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

And as the kids go streaming happily back to school, and the nation's sun-burnt disk jockeys leave their pool-sides, mobile units, and outdoor arenas to come swarming back to the eternal security of their stainless steel, glass walled studios, another summer comes to an end. Welcome Home! . . . Larry Gar (WLBG-Laurens, S.C.) thinks The Cash Box "Bios for DeeJays" are terrific. Writes us that he's instituted a new program feature on his regular show plus his "Hi-Fi Club" whereby he reads the bio as an intro to the artist's current hit single. We'd welcome comments from other jockies on the programming value of this new feature. . . . To celebrate Confucius' Birthday, which fell on

Aug. 27, WLEE-Richmond, Va., in a public service campaign urging listeners to do their Confucius Birthday shopping early this year, asked them to send in their favorite Confucius sayings. The station was amazed to learn, not to our surprise, that Confucius' wisdom covered a wide variety of subjects—including many which are seldom discussed on the air. WLEE is now offering its remarkable collection to any publisher who would be interested to having the book banned in Boston. . . . Jim "Oscar" Hval left his turntable at KEYZ-Wiliston, N.D. for a new, two year contract with the Army. . . . We've learned that WPAT-Paterson, N.J. is featuring the new Maurice Chevalier album, "Thank Heaven For Girls, Girls, Girls," during the entire month of Sept. In addition, Chevalier is spotlighted in the station's monthly program guide with pics and bio info. . . . The latest issue of promo man Buddy Basch's "Top Hit Club News" puts the profile on Bob "Coffeehead" Larson of WRIT-Milwaukee. . . . Joe Franklin (WABC) and Bea Kalmus (WMGM) recently welcomed to their New York broadcasts Beverly Brooks and Sylvio Flory plugging their new Dora EP.

A programming fad is currently sweeping the country—not that it's never been done before—but not in such quantity. The fad? Special programs devoted to hits of the past. Four notes this week indicate listener reactions will keep this feature growing. KXOK-St. Louis call it the "Harvest of Hits" (a three day affair); in Portland, Ore., it's the "KISN Klassics"; WKLO-Louisville tabs it "Treasurama Day," and KDWB-Minneapolis heralds "The Greatest Sounds Of Our Time" for two full days. Through the past weeks we've received reports from numerous other stations devoting full days to this special. . . . A hastily scribbled note from Larry Ford (WTBO-Cumberland, Md.) tells us (and the world) that his wife presented him with 7 lb. 2 oz. John Stuart Ford on Sept. 8. Larry wonders what the repercussions would have been if he'd named the boy Henry? . . . To welcome Barney Keep back from his vacation, fellow deejays at KEX-Portland, Ore. asked his fans to send in gifts for Barney—but limited only to unwanted items. Among the parcels received were false teeth, gold-plated nails, perfumed clothes pins, an antique button hook and a wooden leg. The latter gift clinched the winning prize. . . . Jim Clark, program director of WKCV-Warrenton, Va., reports the advantages of being on the air from 4 to 8 AM each day. He has listeners in such far-flung places as Buffalo, Syracuse, Ontario, Canada and other eastern cities. . . . WWDC-Washington, D.C. personality Jack Rowzie scored a "record" when his little League baseball team walked off with the Forest Heights, Md. Little League World Series. The name of the team is "Jack Rowzie's WWDC Records." . . . Al "Flat Top" Daly is again urging deejays and artists to guest with him via taped messages (30 seconds or one minute at 7½ or 3¼ i.p.s.) to help "Operation Leaky Arm" in its forthcoming blood donor drive. The dates are Oct. 10 thru 14. Comedy bits are wholeheartedly welcome.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Schwartz, recently of KAKE-Wichita, Kans., and KSBK-Naha, Okinawa, will broadcast mornings under the alias of Lee Tyler and also assumes music directorship of the station. . . . WEMP-Milwaukee has upped Chuck Phillips to program director and has added Johnny "Madman" Michaels. Phillips continues his on-the-air work; Michaels comes from a short stint with WKHM-Dearborn, Mich., after a six year hike with WOKY-Milwaukee. . . . Chuck Brinkman, a top rated New Haven, Conn. jockey at WNHC, has moved to KQV-Pittsburgh where he'll do the all-night show. . . . Kerm Gregory, five year veteran of WAEB-Allentown, Pa., is now the station's program director, replacing Nedd Flemming, who'll devote more time to sales. . . . New additions to the WHAY-Hartford, Conn., airwaves are Ray Check (of WNAB-Bridgeport, Conn.) and Dave Stewart (of WBEC-Pittsfield, Mass.). . . . David E. David Fentress, who served as vacation announcer for WWDC this summer, has joined the Washington, D.C. station as a regular.

Everest Set For Fall Push In LP's—Singles

NEW YORK—Harry D. Belock, president of Belock Instrument Corp., announced last week that Everest Records, Belock's recording division, is entering into the fall season with a "highly competitive, streamlined staff and a dynamic new push into the popular album and singles market."

In order to strengthen the diskery's position in the popular field, Everest is reportedly negotiating for the exclusive rights to two "outstanding and highly successful" recording artists. The organization set-up will operate under the personal and direct supervision of Belock, together with LeRoy Holmes as general manager and A&R director, Raoul Poliakin as classical A&R director, Moe Preskel as national promotion and sales, Marty Weiss, advertising and publicity, and Bob Engler in charge of the recording studio.

Holmes is hitting the pop single market with five new ones by Gloria Lynne, The Baysiders, Billy Grammer, Wayne Walker, and Robert Holliday's Orchestra. Holmes will continue to record in Nashville, Tenn., where he cut Billy Grammer and other country artists, as well as in New York and Los Angeles; and also expects to make deals with independent producers for singles. Pop albums in the works include Gloria Lynne, clarinetist Jimmy Hamilton (from the Duke Ellington Band), comedienne Jorie Remus, the newly signed Charlie Shavers, movie actress Ann Blyth, and Walter Brennan, whose present album "The Miracle Of Life" is one of the label's best sellers.

Poliakin plans new recordings with The London Symphony Orchestra, The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, and The Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra.

Belock further announced that the Everest recording studio at Bayside, Long Island will be available to other recording companies in the future on a rental basis.

Edith Sall Named Head Of Rank Publishing Subsidiaries

NEW YORK—Harold Friedman, consultant and director of the executive committee of Rank Records of America, announced last week the appointment of Edith Sall as general professional manager of Jaro Music (BMI) and Rank Music Company of America (ASCAP), the music publishing subsidiaries of Rank Records of America.

Under Miss Sall's direction, we intend to have Jaro Music and Rank Music become a powerful entity in the field of music publishing just as our record firms are constantly building in prestige, stature and sales."

Miss Sall is responsible for placing "Look For A Star" in Jaro Music and securing ten records on the tune which subsequently became a major money-maker for the publishing company. Victor Issues Football LP With NFL Tie-In

NEW YORK—RCA Victor releases this week an exclusive album of the thirteen official songs of the professional National Football League, it was announced last week jointly by Dick Peirce, manager of the label's West Coast office, and Larry Kent, vice-president of NFL Enterprises.

The package is sanctioned by and will be promoted through the NFL as well as the usual record store outlets. Special tie-ins with the league have been set up including the sale of records at all the games, ads in the five million weekly programs and official handbooks issued by the NFL, plus a featured TV spot on pre-game warm-up shows and actual broadcasts. The album cover bears the emblems of the thirteen teams, and each song is personally introduced on the record by a star player or coach of the individual team.

The musical content of the album, although they are marching songs, have been recorded with a dance-band flavor by the 30-piece orchestra of composer-conductor-arranger Bernard Green. There are six songs from the Eastern Conference and seven from the Western Conference plus an opening band of "Hoo-Ray for Mr. Football." The package was produced for RCA Victor by West Coast A&R representative Lee Schapiro.

Capitol Re-Signs Ernie Ford

HOLLYWOOD — Tennessee Ernie Ford, long-time popular disk-TV personality, last week signed a new exclusive long-term contract with Capitol Records.

Ford's career as a recording artist dates from January of 1949 when he signed his original contract with Capitol. Since that date, he has recorded over a dozen albums for the label, and many single disks. His most recent albums were the unique "sing-along" LP's, "Sing A Hymn With Me," released last February, and "Sing A Spiritual With Me," released last July.

His "Sixteen Tons" single waxing, cut in 1955, was one of the spectacular successes in the history of the wax business.

Among Ford's more recent Capitol albums include "A Friend We Have," "Gather Around," "The Star Carol," "Nearer The Cross," "Ol' Rockin' Ern'," "Spirituals," "Hymns" and "This Lusty Land."

Scheduled for release this December is an LP, "Tennessee Ernie Ford Invites You To Come To The Fair," which was recorded "live" earlier this month during Ford's record-breaking two-day appearance at the Indiana State Fair. On September 3 & 4, he grossed $75,676 at the Fair, a high for the attraction.

Ford's weekly TV'er over NBC is one of the medium's most popular programs.

Ford is managed by Cliffie Stone, vet producer and recording artist in the country field.

Townsend To W.B.

HOLLYWOOD—Singer Ed Townsend has joined the Warner Bros. label, after asking for and receiving his release from Capitol Records. He had cut for Capitol for three years. His biggest success was "For Your Love." His first for W.B., already released, is "Stay With Me" and "I Love Everything About You."

ARMADA Directors Meet In N.Y.;

Plan Next Convention And Further Action Against Bootleggers

NEW YORK — The Directors of ARMADA (American Manufacturers & Distributors Assn.) met in New York last week to discuss general business, attempt to agree upon a date for the next ARMADA convention, and discuss progress and problems in bootlegging.

It was agreed by the directors that the next ARMADA Convention will be held the latter part of June 1961. The exact site and exact date depend on a number of factors. ARMADA execs agreed that it would be advantageous to its members if the annual convention could be expanded into a "working record convention" as well as an ARMADA meet. As Art Talmadge explained it:

"The summer months have been hectic for both manufacturers and distributors. These are the months when various manufacturers stage conventions of their own in such far flung sites as Puerto Rico, the Bahamas and various resort areas throughout the U.S. During these months distributors run from one convention to another spending as much as a week with each company. This is extremely time consuming for distributors and costly to both manufacturers and distributors. What ARMADA would like to do is hold its business part of the convention on the first day or two of a week in June and allow manufacturers to use the remaining three or four days of the week to introduce their fall product in various exhibit halls or ballrooms throughout the chosen hotel. The distributor could cover a great many of his manufacturers in one convention and smaller labels, which cannot afford a convention of their own, could stage displays at the ARMADA affair."

Talmadge advised that he and other ARMADA execs would be contacting both mfrs. and distributors to determine how they feel about the idea. If agreeable to the majority, a five or six day convention will be planned and a site will be sought.

Talmadge revealed that an important break in the bootlegging problem will be announced in the near future. He said that ARMADA has a signed confession from a bootlegger which has been turned over to the district attorney of the state (the state and the person's name cannot at present be revealed because of the nature of the problem).

The Bergen & Essex County case (better known as the Bernie Lowe case) comes to court next month. The legal firm of Blanc, Steinberg, Balder and Steinbrook, handling this case, is also reported making strong headway in San Francisco and Los Angeles representing ARMADA on the coast. The D.A. on the coast is said to have come up with considerable information about west coast bootlegging.

Talmadge also announced that a number of distributors have seen an amazing increase in their sales since the investigation of bootlegging began.

The meeting, headed by ARMADA president Art Talmadge, was attended by ARMADA execs Jim Schwartz, Bob Chatton, Nelson Verbit, Bill Schockett, Harry Apostoleris, and executive secretary Jordan Ross. Hurricane Donna prevented the arrival of other execs in New York—Amos Heilicher, Sam Phillips and Honorary President E. Abner. Al Bennett was in Europe.

ARMADA Says Call For Aid Against Bootlegging Is Heavy

NEW YORK — Ever since the ARMADA assumed the business of tracing down the bootleggers in the ords in New York has been report-madage's office at United Artists Records in New York has been reportedly swamped with telephone calls and letters from the various members of ARMADA asking for help in bootlegging activities popping out in all parts of the country.

Talmadge turns over the information to ARMADA's law firm Blanc, Steinberg, Balder & Steinbrook, which carefully checks out the complaints and immediately contacts the local State Attorney's office with whatever information is available to them.

Talmadge states, "that the bootlegging keeps popping up every time a half a dozen hot records hit the charts. While ARMADA has made great strides in bringing evidence to the attention of the State Attorney's office, I feel that the only thing that will bottle up the entire bootleg activity is to have a federal law passed making it a criminal offense to buy or sell the bootleg merchandise. I am appalled at the lack of concern shown by some dealers when they are offered this bootleg merchandise. They make no desire or show no concern as to whether or not it is being sold to them by legitimate sales people."

"Tommy" Revised For England

NEW YORK—Marilyn Michaels was rushed into the RCA Victor recording studios last week to re-record "Tell Tommy I Miss Him" for release in England. The performance remained the same as the American version except for the substitution of the line "he meant everything to me" for the original line "he is up in heaven somewhere." The change was suggested by the British publisher, Lawrence Wright, who reported that the BBC had objected to the reference of Heaven. The disk is being released in England and Europe this week on the heels of "Tell Laura I Love Her," which was not considered "cricket" but rapidly climbed the best seller list shortly after its release.

Capitol Issues Single By (Dobie Gillis) Hickman

It was ten years ago that Atlantic first recorded the Benton work, with John Dahl, and it became the label's first hit album. Continuing response led Atlantic to record it a second time in 1956, with Alfred Byder. This third Atlantic waxing with Harvey has been set to a jazz background and will be available in mono and stereo.

Nobody's "Sorry" Here

NEW YORK—Brenda Lee, who's well on her way towards another million record seller with her latest Decca release, "I Want To Be Wanted," is presented with a gold record for her waxing of "I'm Sorry." "LAUGHS FOR LOSERS"—Dave Barry—Liberty LRP 3176

Latest entry into the comic LP races is Dave Barry's Vegas-recorded stint on Liberty. And it bears promise of securing a chart position soon. Barry's style is the understatement, relayed through casual patter. His subjects are the usual choice—Women Drivers, TV Westerns, Alcoholics, etc. Peg it for eventual stardom.

"LOVE AFFAIR"—The Four Lads—Columbia CL 1502

Continually growing in stature as one of the country's most consistent pop vocal quartets, the Four Lads take a change of pace here from their usual rhythmically-oriented LP's with a session devoted to the more mature love ballads. Songs such as "Like Someone In Love," "While We're Young," "Time After Time," "A Fellow Needs A Girl" and "Just Say I Love Her" are treated to the Lads' rich harmonic technique in simple, yet effective string-choral arrangements. Should go a long way.

"DREAMIN'"—Johnny Burnette—Liberty LST 7179

One of the more talented of the new crop of songsters, Burnette bows LP-wise on a package titled after his recent pop chart-maker. Along with this likeable romantic, the session also includes such notables as "Please Help Me, I'm Falling," "My Special Angel," "Kaw-Liga," "I Really Don't Want To Know" and "Settin' The Woods On Fire." Of special teen interest.

"FIRST AFFAIR"—The Four Freshmen—Capitol ST 1378

The cherished memories of the first romance are fondly brought to mind by the rich vocal instrumental stylings of the group. Unlike most LP love moods of late, this one is only concerned with the happy side of the fence—bringing such tunes as "I Hadn't Anyone Till You," "Polka Dots And Moonbeams," "It's A New World" and "I'm Beginning To See The Light" to the fore with relaxed, enjoyable interpretations. Refreshing vocal mood.

"MY GOLDEN FAVORITES"—Teresa Brewer—Coral CRL 57351

The exuberant, ever-youthful songstress boasts a long successful career with the label. In review, this album presents some of her most successful singles outing during the past years. Among them are "Music! Music! Music!," "Till I Waltz Again With You," "Ricochet," "A Sweet Old Fashioned Girl" and "Heavenly Lover." Nostalgia for young and old alike.

"SONGS OF EARTH AND SKY"—Art & Paul—Columbia CL 1498

Debut of a new, unusual folk singing duo. Art & Paul make extensive use of vocal counterpoint rather than harmony as most such acts, and build vivid characterizations around each number. Material they've chosen reflect their unique abilities; the repertoire includes such offbeat songs as "All The Pretty Little Horses," "There's A Hole In The Bucket, Mariah," "Wish I Didn't Miss Her So" and "Gently Johnny, My Jingle-oh." An adept pair worthy of attention.

"THE GIRLS AND BOYS ON BROADWAY"—Billy May and His Orchestra—Capitol ST 1418

In a selection of tunes from Broadway, May comes through swingingly with a solid big band outing. May's arrangements utilize a crisp, full bodied attack with emphasis on the lively dancing beat. It's also fine listening for abounding here are such songs as "Guys And Dolls," "If I Were A Bell," "I Gotta Have You" and "Heart." A pungent date in the May tradition.

"SHAKIN' UP VEGAS!"—The Tony Pastor Show—Capitol ST 1415

The rollicking, rafter-shaking Pastor Show, taped live here at the Stardust, is headed by poppa Tony and includes sons Guy and Tony, Jr., and the Eydie Gorme-ish Penny Pryor. They sing and swing up a vocal and instrumental storm, bringing the house down with Tony's gravel-voiced "Oh Marie" and "I'm Confessin'" plus group-wise on "Everything's Coming Up Roses" and a rousing opening medley of "smile" songs. Volatile entertainment.

"YOU'RE LOOKING GOOD"—Dee Clark—Vee Jay LP 1019

Clark's current chart-rider, the title song, is the spanking bright opener for a delicious tune lineup which also includes such rhythmic gems as Ray Charles' "What'd I Say," "Baby What You Do To Me," "Wondering" and "Come To California." The infectious rhythm & blues-oriented stylings of Clark can score strongly.

"TOGETHER FOR THE LAST TIME" Volume I—Joe "Fingers" Carr & Ira Ironstrings—Warner Bros. 1389

The label's two 'fun' musicians, Carr (the world's greatest ragtime piano player) and Ironstrings (the best damn music in the land) meet head-on in an historic 1st volume clash of ivories and banjo which results in this potent portent of things to come. With Carr at the upright, the entire Ironstrings clan joins in stirring musical tributes to such cherished mementoes as "Ironfingers Rag," "Too Much Mustard," "Too Fat Polka" and "Aba Daba Honeymoon." Music? Indeed!

"GUITAR & STRINGS"—Johnny Smith—Roost LP 2242

This is not just a guitar and string ork LP. Smith's imagination has soared high and far for the unusual arrangements here, which use solo guitar, solo violins or violas, massed strings and subtle rhythms in various doses and textures. The songs (nine) are concerned with the "bittersweet pleasure of remembered love" and Smith has expertly captured these feelings in "Yesterdays," "The Inch Worm," "Golden Earrings" and "What Is There To Say." A sensitive and fragrant listening treat.

"OUR LEADER"—Banjo Picking by That Multi-Fingered Plucker, Paul Miller—Fantasy 3287

Musical humorist extraordinary, Paul Miller is also the man responsible for the label's San Francisco Marching, Trotting and Walking Band albums. Here, in basically a solo banjo role (along with rhythm assistance), he offers delightfully gleeful performances of such fondly-remembered pieces as "Sheik Of Araby," "If You Knew Susie," "Varsity Drag" and other vintage favorites as well as that grand old neglected opus "Take Your Girl To The Movies (If You Can't Make Love At Home)." It's all in good fun, and done extremely well.

"THE SOUND OF CONVERSATIONS IN MUSIC"—The John Parker Orchestra—Medallion MS-7504

Musical conversations—songs that originally used contrapuntal lines, two melodies or two voices, are put to use here as a stereo showcase. Parker uses blocks of instruments, brass vs. reeds, etc., in instrumental readings of these songs. Among them are "Together," "Let's Call The Whole Thing Off," "Love Is The Reason," "Who Cares" and "You're Just In Love." Of course sound separation is clearly defined.

"WE PLAY—YOU SING... THE GREAT MILLION SELLERS"—Don Costa, his Orchestra and Chorus—United Artists UAL 3104

A gimmick sing-along session that ought to attract the teenagers. Costa has recreated a dozen recent hit songs with ork-chorus arrangements, leaving the lead vocals to be sung by participants from the accompanying song sheet. Among the tunes are "Alley Oop," "Personality," "Ev'rybody's Somebody's Fool," "Paper Roses" and "He'll Have To Stay."

Album Reviews

"ADVENTURES IN PARADISE"—Charles K. L. Davis—Everest SDBR 1106

The richly-endowed tenor, being Hawaiian born, offers his personal tribute to the romanticism, real or imagined, of the island state. The traditional tunes are here, all splendidly sung with vocal richness and artistic taste. Among the songs are "The Moon Of Manakoor," "Pagan Love Song," "Red Sails In The Sunset" and "Sleepy Lagoon."

"THE FIVE SATINS ENCORE"—Ember ELP 401

The group, which reached popularity in the heyday of rhythm & blues with "In The Still Of The Night," offers a full LP of its teen song stylings. This is potent teen merchandise as it includes "I'll Be Seeing You" and "Shadows" as well as "Candlelight," "You Must Be An Angel" and "The Time."

"DANCING AT THE HOP"—Bobby Vinton—Epic LN 3727

Vinton, the youngest big band leader on the scene, directs his brightly swinging, rock-oriented ork on his first LP date. The selections are mostly big band classics but an arranging hand from Jim Drake has transformed them into solid teen dance attractions. Included are "Sentimental Journey," "Caravan," "Intermission Riff" and "In A Shanty In Old Shanty Town."

"SHEER ECSTASY"—The Cesana Strings—Warner Bros. WS 1390

An inviting mood album that is unashamedly sensuous. Cesana has created twelve original themes to advance the suggestion of the mood, and has orchestrated them with a touch of luxuriousness. Album abounds in ork sensitivity, through such aptly-titled tunes as "Velvet Love," "First Love," "Tender Sunrise" and "Growing Warmer."

"A TRIBUTE TO MARIO LANZA"—Enzo Stuarti—Spinorama MK 3091

Stuarti, a firm-voiced tenor himself, offers a tribute to the late Mario Lanza. Naturally, the program contains a combination of opera arias, neopolitan songs and several popular songs which are suited to performance by an operatic voice. Among them are "Celeste Aida," "Vesti la Giubba," "O Sole Mio," "Che Gelida Manina" and the inevitable "Be My Love." Stuarti is a fine, well-trained singer and does superior justice to this assemblage.

"BLOW YE WINDS"—U.S. Coast Guard Academy Singers—MGM E3861

Sea shanties make for rollicking, vigorous entertainment, especially when sung with the youthful zest of an amateur chorus such as this. These future officers burst forth singing of the rigors and pleasures of a sea life in such robust songs as "Earlie In The Morning," "Blow Ye Winds," "Boston Come All Ye," "The Erie Canal" and "A-Rovin'." A rousing slice of entertainment.

"THE MARTINI SET"—Graham Forbes and the Trio—Phillips PLP-1955

Forbes' keyboard style typifies the cocktail lounge pianist. Here with the usual bass-drums support he delves light-fingeredly into the likes of "Nobody Else But Me," "Will You Still Be Mine," "Autumn In New York," "Wait 'Til You See Her" and other notable melodies. An "atmospheric" recording; steeped in the atmosphere of tipling.

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

"LOUIE AND THE DUKES OF DIXIELAND"—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5924

In front of the smoothly ensembled Dukes, Louie Armstrong cuts loose with strong doses of his familiar jazz personality. He sings, solos and provides the ultimate spark to making this a successful outing. AF's finely engineered stereo sound has caught the infectious proceedings with amazing clarity. The tunes, all Dixie standards, include "Bourbon Street Parade," "Avalon," "Sweet Georgia Brown" and "Limehouse Blues." Has a strong sales outlook.

"LITTLE SUSIE"—The Ray Bryant Trio—Columbia CL 1449

Titled after the pianist's pop chart maker, the LP presents Bryant in a display of keyboard virtuosity. He is a delightfully "alive" artist, swinging brightly the up numbers, but immensely capable of etching a murky blue mood. Selections here include "By Myself," "Willow Weep For Me," "So In Love" and "Misty." High commercial possibilities.

"EDDIE HEYWOOD AT THE PIANO"—Mercury SR 60248

The bright, enjoyable Heywood keyboard style in a program of pop/jazz standards. This is jazz entertainment at its most relaxing. Heywood, ably assisted rhythmically, skillfully weaves his way in and out of such melodic figures as "Cheek To Cheek," "The Song Is You," "The Continental," "Diane" and "Where Or When." Pleasureful listening.

"SOUL JAZZ"—Prestige 1009

The label continues to bring forth exciting jazz listening in its recently revamped LP line. Here, there are just three tracks, each one a veritable storehouse of striking blues jazz. One side is entirely devoted to "All Mornin' Long" by the Red Garland Quintet, and features Garland, John Coltrane and Donald Byrd; the other side is split between the Prestige All-Stars playing "All Day Long" and the Jackie McLean Quintet on "Lights Out." This is soul jazz at its soulfullest.

"SOUL STATION"—Hank Mobley, Wynton Kelly, Paul Chambers, Art Blakey—Blue Note 4031

Mobley is a tenorman with a compulsion to swing, and this he does here, for not only does his own rhythmic sense stand him in good stead, he has the good fortune of the Kelly-Chambers-Blakey rhythm section. And these three also contribute their own outstanding solo work to the session. Excitement is generated throughout, especially on "Remember," "Split Feelin's" and "If I Should Lose You."

"JAZZ SCENE 2"—Various Artists—Epic LA 16001

As with "Jazz Scene 1," the companion album (reviewed last week) for this release, the tracks have all been culled from the Epic catalog. But, whereas #1 has collector's item interest, this set, dating from 1951-57, is little more than a "sampler" of recent jazz albums released by the label. There are some very interesting tracks here by Zoot Sims and Al Cohn, Kenny Clarke, Herbie Mann and Ahmad Jamal, but all are available in other Epic albums.

"PERCUSSIVE JAZZ"—Audio Fidelity DFS 7002

Lead-off set in the label's "Doctored For Super-Stereo" series is one which translates the current percussion fad into jazz terms. There's nothing unusually exciting or original in the jazz played, but it's played well by capable musicians who follow the stereo-angled arrangements religiously. Among the selections are "Harlem Nocturne," "Witchcraft," "The Man That Got Away" and "There Will Never Be Another You." Obviously, percussion is the object, and it's obtained with devastating results.

ENGLAND

The Pye Record Company this week tops The Cash Box British LP charts with "Down Drury Lane To Memory Lane"—the lavish two-record album specially devised as a birthday present to celebrate the 1st Anniversary of the Golden Guinea series of low priced LP's retailing at 30/-. This is the first low-priced album to reach the No. 1 slot. Marketed by 100% direct distribution, sales in three weeks have reportedly reached 60,000 albums. In order to meet the demand, both factory and sleeve manufacturers are working 24 hours, 7 days a week. Commenting on the achievement L. Benjamin, the company's assistant general manager told The Cash Box, "The phenomenal success is attributed to content, value, sales drive and sales promotion, the unconventional methods of extensive poster and TV advertising plays a major part in the success but at no time should we forget the 40 direct outlets of Pye via their sales force whose enthusiasm has carried the project through. Tribute must also be paid to Somerset Records who went along with the production of this two-record album from its inception over a very hurried and informal lunch in Paris."

Pye Records confirms the appointment of Tony Hatch, late of Top Rank, to the A & R exploitation team. As a talented pianist, Tony has already made two recordings himself—"Side Saddle," "Chick," "Stetson" and "Rumba-Cha." As a composer he was responsible for Garry Mills' current hit, "Look For A Star" and "39 Steps," recorded by Craig Douglas. In the A & R field he has supervised recording sessions by The Knightsbridge Strings, with Reg Owen, Malcolm Lockyer, Bert Weedon, Lorie Mann, etc.

Joe Meek of R.G.M. Sound, former A & R manager for Triumph Records and responsible for the hit "Angela Jones" by Michael Cox has signed three of his artists to the Pye label. Each have their first disk released this week. They are Ricky Wayne with "Make Way Baby" backed with "Goodness Knows," Peter Jay with "Paradise Garden" and "Who's The Girl" and The Flee-Rekkers "Sunday Date" and "Shiftless Sam."

Following reports understood to be circulating to the effect that the Rank Organization and Electric Musical Industries (EMI) are discussing the possibility of the latter taking over Rank Records of America Inc. M. Kenneth Winkles has issued the following statement: "On behalf of The Rank Organization Ltd. I wish it to be definitely known that no such discussions have taken place nor are any contemplated with EMI or any other organization."

After a tour of European capitols the president of Liberty Records, Alvin S. Bennett, together with his international sales director Richard Annotico, arrived in London last week. In an interview with The Cash Box, Bennett outlined the growth of this young company. Formed in 1955 by Simon Waronker, Bennett joined Liberty Records in 1958 as vice president and general manager, having previously been with Decca and Dot Records. Last January, Waronker became chairman of the board and Bennett was elected president. The initial success of the Liberty label was marked by Julie London's first major hit, "Cry Me A River" to be followed by David Seville's "Witch Doctor" and today several of the label's artists are featured in The Cash Box Top 100, including Johnny Burnette with "Dreamin'" and Bobby Vee's "Devil Or Angel"—both released here on the London label as is Garry Miles' "Look For A Star."

Bennett said that the trip was one of good will—having firmly established themselves in the American market they are now taking a good look at the English record scene, visiting the diskery's licencees and distributors in the European capitols as well as having discussions with The Decca Record Company which releases Liberty on the London label over here. Bennett told The Cash Box: "Our primary aim through the Decca Organization is to establish an artist as an artist and not just as a single record. As a result of this trip we will immediately start to put into effect concentrated promotion campaigns on the continent as well as England." Among the artists whom he hopes to bring over are Johnny Burnette and Bobby Vee and, if her commitments will allow, Julie London. Bennett returned to the States on Saturday, but Annotico is making another trip to the continent—taking in Portugal and Spain—before returning home. Gogi Grant—another Liberty artist—has a release on the London label this week, "Goin' Home" backed with "I'm Going To Live The Life."

Agent Bunny Lewis reports that Craig Douglas—a chart topper for the Top Rank label with his "Only Sixteen"—is currently on a business-cum-holiday trip to Italy for discussions with Durium Records. Another of Lewis' artists, twenty-one-year old Russ Sainty has his first release on the Decca label entitled "Too Shy."

Fred Jackson of Mason Music Ltd. is delighted that "Windows of Paris" has been chosen as the signature tune for the BBC Sound radio program, "Roundabout" which is broadcast Monday through Friday. This composition written by Tony Osborne was awarded The Ivor Novello Award For The Best British Light Music Composition in 1959 and of the 20 disks which are available in European countries the one recorded by the composer on HMV remains the most popular.

Shirley Bassey, whose Columbia disk "As Long As He Needs Me" is already in the charts, received rave press notices after her opening at Al Burnett's Pigalle Theatre-Restaurant last week. After her four-week engagement at the Pigalle and a "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" TV show on October 2 Shirley flies to the States for major TV appearances this Autumn.

Nat King Cole made a welcome return to British TV on Saturday, September 17 in ATV's "The Nat King Cole Show" filmed during his recent visit to this country. Guests on the show included Dave King and Marino Marini Quartet.

Latest recruit to the 'double lyric' gimmick is Skeeter Davis who responds to Hank Locklin's RCA plea, "Please Help Me I'm Falling" with "(I Can't Help It) I'm Falling Too" also on RCA. Although this is the first single by Skeeter Davis to be released in this country she is well known in the States having been voted Most Promising Female Singer in the country music field in the 1958 Cash Box Disk Jockey Poll. Another disk of "As Long As He Needs Me" from Lionel Bart's smash musical, "Oliver," was released last week on Decca by Georgia Brown.

Pye last week issued Robert Horton's first single made during a recent visit to these shores, "Roll Along Wagon Train" backed with "Sail Ho." On the same label comes "Shortnin' Bread" by The Viscounts.

AUSTRALIA

Australian Record Company is making a very solid promotion drive throughout Australia in connection with its newly released Warner Bros. label. They have produced a big batch of colorful display material for dealer and distributor use. The second release of Warner Bros. albums includes two of the hottest items on The Cash Box album charts, "The Button-Down Mind of Bob Newhart" and "It's Everly Time." They have also made a rush release of "So Sad," the new single release by The Everly Brothers.

Lee Gordon's next show is to be a huge jazz festival, to begin towards the end of October. Top American names booked so far for this bash are Dakota Staton, Al Hibbler, Sarah Vaughan, Dizzy Gillespie and Jonah Jones; other leading are to be added to the bill. This will be one of the few jazz flavored shows brought to this country by Gordon. In the past he has followed a fairly strict policy of big hit names and current disk stars in the pop field. Many people here will watch with keen interest the result of this forthcoming jazz show.

Star Tasmanian disk jockey Don Lunn has joined the staff of Station 3UZ in Melbourne. Don takes over a daily segment of a couple of hours of popular material. Lewis Bennett, general manager of 3UZ, and Johnny McMahon, program manager, chose Lunn from hundreds of applicants from all over Australia. Lunn was previously with Station 7LA in Launceston.

Top English star Lonnie Donegan—who records for Pye Records and who has cracked the charts here with "My Old Man's A Dustman" and "I Wanna Go Home"—is set for a tour of Australia and New Zealand. Harry Sutcliffe, boss of Pye Records in Australia, advises that Lonnie will arrive in Perth, Western Australia, on October 26 to commence his concert season. The tour schedule calls for shows in Perth, Adelaide, Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Newcastle; and Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch in New Zealand.

It looks for sure that "Yes Sir That's My Baby" will reach hit status here as a revival. New singles of the old favorite are available here by Col Joye, Dick Caruso and Ricky Nelson.

EMI has just released what looks like a hot album on its Columbia label; it is "Wild One" by Bobby Rydell. Rydell has been enjoying fantastic success with his singles here recently. "Swingin' School" was one of the biggest hits of the year throughout Australia and currently young Rydell is splitting the charts wide open with "Volare." If ever an album showed real potential, "Wild One" by Rydell is it.

Jeri Southern is scheduled to arrive in Melbourne later this month for a season at "The Embers" popular Melbourne nightspot. Jeri's visit has been organized by Mike Gould, an American agent, on behalf of "The Embers."

W & G Records has signed an agreement with Chanson Records of Tennessee to release the Clentt Gant version of "I Need You So," which is on The Cash Box Top 100.

Lee Gordon is still busy "counting the take" from the just completed Ricky Nelson tour of this country. Nelson headed up a strong cast of local acts in one of the most successful shows ever to be presented here by Lee Gordon.

Peter Smith, star D-J with the Australian Broadcasting Commission (ABC), the Government-owned and operated nationwide network, is now presenting the Radio-Australia Hit Parade seven times each week. Radio Australia is the ABC's overseas outlet, Peter's sessions are heard throughout most of the free world and are translated into several foreign languages.

Two topline American stars, Clyde McPhatter and Sammy Davis, are making their disk debut for the Mercury group of labels in Australia. On Mercury, McPhatter comes through with "Ta-Ta" which looks like a first-up smash, whilst Sammy Davis is out on Verve with "Eee-O Eleven" c/w "Ain't That A Kick In The Head," both numbers from the Warner Bros. movie "Ocean's 11."

Bobby Rydell's single of "Volare" has made a spectacular entry into the top singles lists here, in it's first week in the nation's Top Ten it jumped into number five spot.

It has been quite a while since we saw a single from Frankie Lennon. He could strike oil here with his latest Roulette release which couples "Little Bitty Pretty One" with "Creation of Love." This could be Frankie's big chance to break into the Australian charts.

England (continued from page 49)

Capitol recording artist Kay Starr arrived in this country last week-end to star in Val Parnell's "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" for ATV TV on Sunday, September 18. Her latest single is "Just For The Thrill" backed with "Out In The Cold Again." Also on the Capitol label comes Elmer Bernstein's "Love Theme" and "Mary Mary" both from the film "From The Terrace." A new Adam Faith waxing which could be another chart topper, "How About That" and "Wide Open Arms"—backing supplied by John Barry and his Orchestra—is issued on the Parlophone label and another Adam—this time Adam Wade on H.M.V. comes along with "Speaking Of Her" and "Blackout The Moon." On the same label pianist Tony Osborne has recorded a selection of tunes from "Oliver" including "I'd Do Anything," "Consider Yourself" and "As Long As He Needs Me." New releases on the Top Rank label—"Over The Rainbow" and "Nursery Rhyme Rock" by The Demensions and "The Long Walk" and "My Foolish Heart" by Bill Leatherwood. Columbia issued a new Dennis Lotis single "Strangers When We Meet" from the film of the same name and "Two Wrongs Don't Make A Right."

GERMANY

Philips teenage songstress Heidi Bruhl was presented a gold bracelet for the sale of 600,000 copies of her hit, "Wir Wollen Niemals Auseinander Gehn." The Siegel-Pincus combine controls the rights for America.

Marlene Dietrich was in Cologne for her new LP production and heard a record playing. "Who's the guy with the wonderful voice?," asked Marlene. She was informed that the voice belonged to Ariola gal singer Zarah Leander, who's almost classified as the German Sophie Tucker. Radio Luxemburg took a recent audience poll and found that 10 million Germans tune in to the commercial top tune station daily. Ex GI Gus Backus, who's plugging his new German cover of "Running Bear," is on tour in Austria.

Robert Storz, the famous composer who has turned out 50 operettas, over 2000 hit tunes and has done over 100 film musicals, celebrated his 80th anniversary. Storz has turned out such waltz favorites as "Two Hearts in Three Quarter Time" and also did the film, "Starring Deanna Durbin," for Joe Pasternak in Hollywood in the 1930's. He lives in Austria. Warner Bros. European chief Bob Weiss visited Munich on his trip around the world. He hosted a large group of press people and stars at the home of top Munich D.J. and press man Jimmy Jungerman. Jimmy is fast gaining the reputation as Munich's top musical host. His house is constantly full of show business people and his charming wife makes a wonderful hostess.

Rudolph Bing from the Metropolitan Opera has just signed German opera stars Anneliese Rothenberger, Herman Prey and Austrian Eberhart Waechter for Met roles.

Another Festival of Light Musicals is to be held in Stuttgart from October 17-23. Well known stars include Juliette Greco, Hazy Osterwald, and Belgium harmonica-guitar player Jean "Toots" Thielmans, who gained fame with the George Shearing Quintet. Stuttgart jazz orchestra leader Erwin Lehn will present new compositions and arrangements by Manny Albam, former Kentonite Bill Russo, and Dave Hilvinger, the former drummer with the Eddie Sauter Orchestra here in Germany.

American violinist Isaac Stern recently turned down a German tour. The loot wasn't sufficient.

German promoters are screaming about the prices asked by American stars for appearances. Frank Sinatra is getting 10,000 dollars a night here, and the Marlene Dietrich tour with a top price of 25 bucks a seat lost about 25,000 dollars. When you're planning a tour here, think about the European pocket-book. It's just not the same as in America. The public here is used to paying a 5 dollar top for concerts. That's one of the main reasons that stars such as Paul Anka, Harry Belafonte, and others just don't make the German concert halls and also stay conspicuously out of the German hit parade with their tunes.

German top film star Kurt Jurgens who just starred in the American film the "Werner Von Braun Story" has just cut an English waxing of "Blacky Jones" for U.S. release on Top Rank.

Publisher Hans Wewerka reports that his Edition Modern has the rights here for music from "The Apartment." The hit by Ferrante and Teicher is released here on Helidor.

German star Willy Schneider who celebrated his 25th birthday on wax this month just cut an LP for stateside release called "I Remember Germany." This album is also expected to rack up top PX sales with soldiers stationed here.

Radio Luxemburg has set a half hour of Glenn Miller music every week. N.Y. born Karl Kaufmann who set a new world's record in the 400 meter dash at the Rome Olympics is also moving well with his first record. Karl's opera oriented baritone voice is showed to good form on his hit "Cupid Runs With Me" on Metronome.

Ariola records is holding its first national youth talent finals at Karlsruhe on September 17. Prelims have been held in about 200 cities in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. The winner gets a record contract. Along for the festivities will be Ariola top stars Dalida, Jan and Kjeld, Peter Wegen, Jimmy Makulis and Zarah Leander. Cash Box will be on hand and results will be reported in a later column.

We've been asked about the absence of the Hot American Singles, and Hot Covers Of English And American Hits column last week. It is also not present this week. The reason: No hot covers or releases. Paul Anka's "Hello Young Lovers" has been released on Columbia here. Maria and Franco Duval, a good looking teenage pair out of Berlin have been chosen to record the theme song for the 2nd annual TV lottery. The profits of this lottery go to the Berlin Children's home for Xmas trips.

More music on TV is the format for the new season. Peter Kraus has just signed for a show every 3 months for national release after his successful debut a few weeks ago. Peter is also doing a regular shot in England.

Publisher George Pincus is on his way to Germany. His son, Lee, recently visited Berlin for conferences.

Europe's number 1 jazz songstress Inge Brandenburg is set for her first stateside visit in February. She and her American manager, former AFN D.J. Charlie Hickman are busy lining up major jazz clubs and TV shots for the sensational gal. Her newest release here is a German version of "Goody Goody." Lee Karzian from the William Morris Agency is handling things stateside. That's it for this week in Germany.

BENELUX

Belgian "fantaisiste" number one, Frieda Linzi, made a Flemish version of Sacha Distel's hit-song, "Mon Beau Chapeau," for Philips records. She also recorded her version of "Itsy Bitsy."

In August, the five best selling records at Philips in Belgium were 1. Baby-lone 21-29 (Norman Maine); 2. Mon beau chapeau (Sacha Distel); 3. Feest Op De Kouter (R. de Coninck); 4. Les Célibataires (Sacha Distel); 5. Diep In Mijn Hart (Jo Leemans).

After her big success of the revival-recording of "Diep In Mijn Hart," famous Belgian lark Jo Leemans recorded a number of other successes of former years, "t Was Een Zomernachtfeest," "Denk Je Nog Aan Die Tijd," "Bonsoir Chérie" and "Weet Je Nog Wel?"

In Germany, Italian-Belgian singer Rocco 'Marina' Granata recorded "Blondina."

The German Ariola-label is now handled in Belgium by Discobel. Ariola has such artists under its wings as Zarah Leander, Romy Schneider, Curd Jürgens, Mona Baptiste, Ilse Werner, Jimmy Makulis, and Tony Sandler. "Paper Roses," published in Holland by Editions Basart, Amsterdam, is quite a success in Benelux. There are already five Dutch recordings: one by Carla van Renesse on the CNR-label, one by Ria Verda on Decca, a Barclay recording from Rina Pia, a Fontana recording from Enny Denita and an instrumental version by trumpeter Bert Grijzen on CNR.

Dureco L.C. is rushing a Dutch record by The Cocktail Trio of the Australian hit "Tie Me Kangaroo Down Sport." This is also a Basart copyright and André Meurs wrote a very good Dutch lyric for it.

Mills Music, New York, bought two of the strongest Dutch marches from cleffer Willy Schootemeyer, "K.L.M. March" and "King Football." They are Basart copyrights.

One of the big sellers of Bovema's Capitol-label will be the original soundtrack from Cole Porter's musical "Can Can," featuring a.o. stars like Frank Sinatra, Maurice Chevalier and Shirley McLaine. The record will be released at the same time with the motion picture.

A new record which Bovema's Columbia-label brought in the spotlight, was Acker Bilk's recording of "White Cliffs Of Dover." Also, "Volare" by Bobby Rydell is very much in demand nowadays, according to Robert Oeges, Bovema's Columbia-label manager.

After their triumphant tour in July/August, Papa Bue's Viking Jazz Band will make a return-visit to Holland at the end of this month. Six towns will be visited. Their "Schlafe mein Prinzchen" is still very high on the Dutch charts.

At last, the Dutch recording industry will have its 'Oscars,' too, for the best achievements in the past year. On October 22, these awards, which are called "Edisons," will be handed over to a number of foreign and Dutch artists, during a big show at the Amsterdam "Concertgebouw" building. This initiative was taken by the record-companies in Holland. For five different styles, two "Edisons" will be given for each style, one to a Dutch and one to a foreign artist. The jury for classical music and opera is composed by Jo Vincent, Leo Riemens and Willem Andriessen. The jury for jazz will be formed by M. A. de Ruyter, Rolf ten Kate, Pete Felleman, Arie Merkt and Cor Aaftink. For the sections popular-vocal and popular-instrumental, Dolf van der Linden, Ger de Roos, Pi Scheffer, Roel Balten and Jan Koopman will be the members of the jury. The "Edison" is a little statue of the inventor of the gramophone, Thomas Edison.

Mr. Hans van Zeeland of C.N. Rood L.C. left for New York last week.

ITALY

French songstress Dalida appeared on "Parata Di Settembre" (September Parade), a new TV Show in Italy. She sang "I Ragazzi Del Pireo" (The Boys Of Pireo), "I Venditori Di Felicità" (Sellers Of Happiness) and "Milord." Mr. Gurtler, whose company distributes Dalida's records in Italy, invited newspaper men and publishers to a party welcoming Dalida on her arrival in Milan. The artist, who after spending many years in Cairo, lives in Paris now, was born in Southern Italy, therefore speaks her native language well. The tunes on the TV show were sung in Italian and she feels that is one of the reasons for her rapidly expanding popularity in Italy. Indeed, she is currently one of the biggest names here. "My version of 'Milord' (number one in Belgium and Germany by Edith Piaf) is extremely successful in Germany," she stated. Dalida was accompanied by Lucienne Morisse, director of Radio Station Europa I, who discovered her, and also the director of the French record company, Barclay.

The well known Frenchman, Gilbert Beaud frequently appears in Italian night clubs. At Nervi, a town on the Italian Riviera, he is expected to take part in a picture produced by Globe International. Stage manager will be Montgomery Clift who will star as well.

Fonit press office managers called at Milan's Cash Box office announcing that Domenico Modugno will tour the United States shortly. He will leave on September 19th and his exact program is not yet fully known. The last creation of the number one Italian singer-composer is titled "Notte Di Luna Calante" (Night of Waning Moon) published by Fonit at the end of July, and the reaction is most promising. Furthermore, Modugno was invited by our TV station to arrange music for a new spectacle which will be called "I Garibaldini" (The Men Of Garibaldi), scheduled for next autumn. He will be starring, of course. Further news from Fonit is that Brenda Lee's "I'm Sorry," one of the strongest records of 1960 in the United States, was published here in August and while former recordings of Brenda's did not do too well in Italy, an immediate favorable reaction is expected from "I'm Sorry."

Rocco Granata, already very well known here, will again appear on the scene of our record market with his latest recording which couples "Rocco Cha Cha Cha" with "La Bella" (The Nice Girl).

I paid a visit to Mr. Franceschini and Mr. Croci, Italian representatives of The Seeburg Corporation of Chicago. The outstanding problems of the coin machine industry are two, according to both. "Number one is the lack of a national magazine in Italy specializing in the field, and number two is the lack of a really active dynamic association in Italy of all people concerned with this industry. So far we have worked independently of each other and thanks to this we were not able to avoid Flipper games being forbidden in Italy, the result of which was a terrific loss of money for the industry. Italy is the only country which forbids Flipper games."

SCANDINAVIA

The Roulette label is now available in the Scandinavian market, released by Scandinavian Record Co. Debut was made with an EP, "Porgy and Bess," recorded by Pearl Bailey. Until recently, the Roulette releases were introduced here on the Sonet label, also handled by Scandinavian, but in the future the records will appear on their original American label.

Nalen, the jazz center in Stockholm, has opened for the season again. Among the orchestras contracted for the new season is Carl-Henrik Norin's Ork.

Sonya Hedenbratt, who was very popular as a jazz singer in Sweden until she left the limelight three years ago, is planning a comeback. She will sing in Levent Miller's Danish orchestra, which is contracted for several weeks in Paris, France.

The Swedish part of Radio Merkur, the so-called pirate radio station broadcasting from a ship outside the three-mile border in Oresund between Sweden and Denmark, has moved into a new and modern studio in Malmö, southern Sweden. One of the neighbors is SBC (Swedish Broadcasting Co.) which has its office in the same building.

Cacka Israelsson is now cutting for Cupol. He was formerly recording for EMI on the Odeon label.

The Oscars Theatre in Stockholm will present "West Side Story" in 1961—if "My Fair Lady" has completed its run by then. "Lady" recently started on its fourth season at the theatre, where it has established an all-time record in Swedish theatre history.

Lennart Reuterskiöld of Reuter & Reuter Music Publishing in Stockholm reports that there are not less than 12 Swedish language recordings of "Yellow Polkadot Bikini" by now. It gives one a very good idea about the popularity of the song, but the high number of recordings might spoil the success since the record shops probably refuse to keep all recording of all labels in stock. Some complaints this way have been heard.

From Finland it's reported that 14-year-old Monica Aspelund from Vaasa might become the newest discovery on Finnish records.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"YOU'RE NOT HAPPY 'TILL I'M CRYIN'" (2:17)
[Brave BMI—Rainwater]

MARVIN RAINWATER (MGM 12938)

Rainwater should be drenching the country charts soon with both ends of this release. "You're Not Happy" is a perky, shuffle-beat sad eyed opus, while "Yesterday's Kisses" reflects the moodier side of the artist in a lazy-paced, dreamy weeper. Both are softly sung, femme chorus backed affairs, and have the necessary strength.

"YOUNG WIDOW BROWN"
[Starday, Heart of the Hills BMI—Jennings, Corbin]

"STRICTLY NUTHIN'"
[Starday BMI—Jones, Miller]

FRANKIE MILLER (Starday 513)

Frankie's got two more pieces of enticing material bound for chartsville. First, aboard a sprightly waltz he tells about the impossibility of trying to keep up with "Young Widow Brown," and then switches to an upbeat for the delightful infectious styling of "Strictly Nuthin'." Both have the necessary goods.

"ONE EMPTY CHAIR" (3:10)
[Moss-Rose BMI—Drusky, McAlpin]

"IT'S BEST YOU KNOW" (2:38)
[Cedarwood BMI—Dill]

GEORGE MORGAN (Columbia 41794)

Morgan's return to chart status could be marked by either side of this Columbia pairing, or even both. They're both ballads; "One Empty Chair" having a hard pop-type beat while "It's Best You Know" is done in traditional country wrapping. Morgan gives 'em both a sensitive display of feelings. So eye the two carefully.

"YOU CAN'T PICK A ROSE IN DECEMBER" (2:09)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Payne]

"YOU'LL HEAR MY HEART BREAK" (2:38)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Hogan, Worth]

ERNEST ASHWORTH (Decca 31156)

The "Each Moment" chartmaker should be hitting the country trail again via the "You Can't Pick A Rose In December" half of his new Decca coupling. Tune's a bright beat lament etched with buckets of the wet-eyed sincerity which the songster displayed in his initial hit. Also marketable is the "Heart Break" underside, a languid sentimental slice.

"HOME COMING IN HEAVEN" (2:26)
[Glad BMI—Gray, Breeland, Nelson, Buskirk]

"WHEN THE LIGHT SHINES IN THE VALLEY" (2:09)
[Glad BMI—Pierce, Gray, Breeland]

CLAUDE GRAY (D 1154)

Having shown the way with "Family Bible," Gray again underscores the potential of the sacred song with an exquisitely beautiful reading of "Home Coming In Heaven." It's an enchanting opus, done in soft paced, deeply moving terms. And strong commercial possibilities also rest with the lower half "When The Light Shines In The Valley," another luxurious sacred stanza with a touching mid-deck recitation. Gray's here to stay.

Eddy Arnold's version of "Before This Day Ends" for RCA Victor has been earmarked for the two market action. (See Pop Reviews.)

GORDON TERRY (RCA Victor 7788)

(B+) "GONNA GO DOWN THE RIVER" (2:26) [Owen BMI—Terry] Complete change of pace here. Gordon, with male quartet help, sends out a rousing message in contagious spiritual style.

(B+) "WHEN THEY RING THOSE WEDDING BELLS" (2:26)

[Cedarwood BMI—Walker] Ace fiddler Terry takes to the vocal paths and by the looks of this Victor outing could gain him recognition in this endeavor. Vehicle's a real slow-moving ballad drenched with Terry's tears of despair. Pretty etching.

THE LOUVIN BROTHERS
(Capitol 4430)

(B+) "LOVE IS A LONELY STREET" (2:41) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Barrett, Cunningham] Ira and Charlie, always a threat, give out with their enticing tones on a medium paced tear-drenched weeper. An easy-on-the-ears melodic offering.

(B) "WHAT A CHANGE" (2:20)

[Central Songs BMI—Louvin] The country harmony by the boys here on a light opus that bears traces of the classic "You Are My Sunshine."

Round Up

An odd country/pop music switch is taking place this week. To bring you up to date: George Hamilton IV, once a pop star, is scoring the country charts with "Before This Day Ends" on ABC-Paramount. Now, Eddy Arnold, a veteran country (or folk) artist, has cut the same tune on RCA Victor with a definite pop approach. So a pop artist rings the country bell and a country artist seems destined to hit the pop charts—both with the same tune.

COWBOY HOWARD VOKES

Cowboy Howard Vokes just back from a trip to Nashville where he guested extensively. Over at WSM, Vokes put in appearances via the "Opry Spotlight Show" with Ralph Emery, on Grant Turner's "Opry Overture" and Ernest Tubb's "Record Shop." Vokes also visited with Bruce Harper at WLAC and held conclaves with Starday's Don Pierce and Hickory's Joe D. Lucas. Wonder if Cowboy left anybody out of his itinerary? . . . Don Owens of WARL-Warlington, Va., tells us, and we concur, that Ray Price's "Faith" LP for Columbia (released last week), is one of the most beautiful sacred albums he's heard in his 15 years in radio. Don calls it "a truly beautiful tribute to the classic sacred songs of our time." . . . Well, it's "Op-eration Leaky Arm" time again and Al "Flat Top" Daly is busy getting the word out about the forthcoming five day drive set for Oct. 10 thru 14. Al again requests deejays and artists to send in their taped messages (30 seconds or one minute, 7½ or 3¾ i.p.s.) to be played on his "Blues, Ballads & Bop" and "Rebel Roundup" broadcasts. Al would like many of the tapes to be comical—the more laughs the better. Tentative deadline date for messages is Sept. 25, so let's get started boys and give a truly worthy cause a helping hand! . . . Star-day's "Country Music Spectacular," extended thru the end of September, continues to gain momentum. It's really a terrific album and a great bargain.

Hickory has signed Bob Gallion to a wax pact. Bob, at WGUN-Atlanta, is now being set for sessions for near future release on the label. . . . Bob Luman was up for a brief visit to The Cash Box offices and everyone was impressed with the boy's warmth and friendliness. He really deserves the stardom that "Let's Think About The Living" is bringing him via pop circles. Just heard that Luman's recent guest shot on the "Opry" really stopped the show. . . . Jimmy Simpson ("The Oilfield Boy") is back at country deejaying after a spell away from the turntables. Jimmy has taken up residence at KFQD-Anchorage, Alaska, and is re-instituting the station's country program. Since KFQD hasn't been airing country disks for quite a while, they're mighty short on the new releases. . . . Bud Bailey infos that any deejays who haven't a copy of Frankie Amato's "You Made A Fool Out Of Me" should contact him at P.O. Box 3, Elizaville, N.Y. . . . Got wind of an interesting incident that happened out Louisiana way. Seems there's a kid at WFPR-Hammond, La., name of Rube Rogers but affectionately tagged Country Boy, who heard of the temporary closing of the "Louisiana Hayride." So Rube got busy on the phone contacting country artists all over Louisiana and Mississippi, and gets up a package show which he himself puts on in Albany, just a few miles from Hammond. Drawing a crowd of 1,400 Rube sinks his next two paychecks into advertising and promotion, stays up day and night and works up another show, which he calls "The Grand Ole Louisiana Hayride." And sure 'nuff, he puts it over big, drawing some 2,500 people at a SRO, turn-away crowd. Enthusiastic with these initial successes, Rube plans a regular weekly affair and wants managers and booking agents to contact him. Title so far will remain "Grand Ole Louisiana Hayride."

Thurston Moore, long known for his Country Publications, has relocated in Denver, attending the University of Denver. Moore letters that he is now working on getting out the 10th Anniversary Issue of his Country Scrapbook, set for publication in November. He invites artists wishing to send new photos and material to contact him at 686 S. Pearl, Denver 9, Colo. . . . Skeeter Davis really hitting the pop big time with her recent appearance on the Dick Clark Show. . . . Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys are holding forth nightly at the Golden Nugget Saloon in Las Vegas, where they're playing into the wee hours of the morning entertaining the night owls in the gambling city.

Starday Studios In Full Swing

NASHVILLE—The recently unveiled Starday recording studio, located just outside this city, is proving instrumental in attracting many widely scattered artists back to this teeming center of country music.

According to a communique from Don Pierce, Starday prexy, the list of artists who have availed themselves of the studios this month, and who've taken advantage of the pool of top musicians available, includes Benny Martin, Cowboy Copas, Dottie West, Ray Hendrix and Paul Wayne. Forthcoming Sept. sessions will bring Lonzo & Oscar, Red Sovine, the Wilis Bros. and the Oak Ridge Quartet.

What every operator should know about the 7-INCH 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ RPM SINGLE STEREO RECORD

WHAT IS IT?

It is the 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ RPM stereo version of the 7" single record. It is the same size but with the small standard center hole.

IS IT AN ALBUM RECORD?

No. It is a single record. However, most 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ stereo 7's which have been released to date feature single versions of best selling album selections.

HOW LONG DOES IT PLAY?

IS IT AN EP?

It has an average playing time, as the 45 RPM single does, of approximately 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 3 minutes. It is not an EP with two selections although two-tune versions can and probably will be released at a later date.

WHAT DOES IT COST?

In general the pricing structure seems to be about the same as the 45 RPM single.

WHY A 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ STEREO SINGLE?

There are several reasons. First, the sale of singles has been rapidly declining. Many record companies feel that a 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ single stereo record may revitalize this market. Why? Because first, it is recognized that the public dislikes the inconvenience of two different sized center holes and two different speeds. Furthermore, 45 RPM stereo has not caught on and there are millions of home players in the country that can play the 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ single.

WILL THERE BE A MONAURAL 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ SINGLE?

There is a monaural 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ single soon to be produced by Capitol and Columbia and probably contemplated by other companies.

WHY DID SEEBURG DESIGN ITS CURRENT LINE TO PLAY THE 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ SINGLE?

Between 80 to 85 per cent of the dollar volume in records today is in 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ albums. Most of this music is largely unavailable as singles, either monaural or stereo. Seeburg believes the 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ stereo single makes sense and may ultimately be the standard for the industry. If so, equipment that plays only one speed may soon be obsolete.

CAN 33 $\frac{1}{3}$'s BE PLAYED INTERMIXED IN THE SEEBURG RECORD MAGAZINE?

Yes—in any position and in any proportion. The Seeburg "dual spindle disc" senses the speed of the record from the size of the hole and automatically plays it at the proper speed.

WHAT IS THE "ARTIST OF THE WEEK" PROGRAM?

It is a program that enables the operator to feature a specific artist and his best selling album selections on location and to dramatize it on the phonograph by displaying an actual reproduction of the album cover.

WHY IS THIS GOOD?

This is an age of dynamic merchandising in all fields. A beautiful album cover can sell records in shops without the patron's even hearing the record. Seeburg has tried to bring the tremendous selling power of the album cover plus the adult music America loves best to the location.

IS THE "ARTIST OF THE WEEK" A PROVEN MONEY MAKER?

Locations in every area of the country are reporting amazing gains in revenue as a result of the "Artist of the Week" program. Income reports will be featured in next week's Seeburg ad.

ONLY THE MODEL "Q" CAN PLAY 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ AND 45 RPM RECORDS INTERMIXED!

Op's Friendship With Location Owner A Vital Factor For Success

While discussing the many problems besetting the operators these days with a group of leading coinmen, we were surprised to find that they concurred on one of the most important factors involved in conducting a route—that is: A large majority of their locations can be retained for years because of their close friendships with the location owners.

The foremost and largest operator in the group—recognized as a dynamic and progressive businessman—explained his methods of conducting his route, gleaned from some thirty years of experience. “A large majority of my locations,” he stated, “are friends of long standing. We’ve always treated them right, and they recognize and appreciate our cooperation. To solidify our position, we are conscientious in providing top service. We see to it that they have the best and newest of equipment. Our collectors are well trained to check the equipment, and be courteous to the people at the location. We have top mechanics, for whom we pay a little better than the market price, and who are available for service and repair at a moment’s notice. To retain the friendship of the individual owner, we visit him periodically. Some more than others, as the individual situation demands. We are happy that we have developed our business to a point where a large majority of our spots are friends.

“And,” he continued, “there are those who are always demanding favors beyond the ordinary top service and equipment. These, fortunately for us, are in the small minority. They stack us up against our competitors who are making offers of bonuses and loans of staggering proportions to jump the spot. We consider each case as a separate problem. In some instances, we meet the competition’s offers to hold the location. In others, we make a compromise deal, and in others, we pull our equipment, even tho we sign all our locations to long term contracts.”

This operator we quote is running a very large route. And yet, he finds the time to create friends of his location owners. From his conversation, it is obvious he considers this the most important function he can perform. Not only does he hold on to the spots, but for the most part, he has been able to eliminate the devastating factor of doling out his cash in the form of loans and bonuses.

The other operators listening in, surprisingly enough to us, advised that the same condition prevails with their routes.

The concensus was that, regardless of the many problems confronting operators in dealing with their location owners, friendship was the most important commodity necessary to solidify their position—attained thru top equipment and top service.

NAMA Membership To Accept Music Ops Engaged Primarily In Automatic Vending

Juke Manufactures Quality But Assoc. Will Serve Only Vending Interests

Clairification Of Policy Seen As Recognition Of Changing Industry

CHICAGO—"Clarification of NAMA bylaws will make possible the acceptance into membership of eligible operating companies who are engaged primarily in automatic vending, but who may also operate music machines, provided, however, that the majority of their machines and the majority of their gross sales volume is in automatic vending." That's the way Thomas B. Donahue, president, National Automatic Merchandising Association, this city, answered the query posing the possibility of NAMA admitting juke box operators and manufacturers to the vending ranks via membership in the national association. The action was set in motion by NAMA's Board of Directors at a special meeting on Friday, September 9.

The Board approved recommendations for two amendments to the association's constitution and bylaws; reaffirmed the association's present policies in regard to its annual Exhibit and Directory of Automatic Merchandising; and initiated tighter controls and safeguards in processing membership applications.

The recommended changes in the bylaws concern clearer definition of the association's purposes, and specific definitions of membership eligibility.

Because of the time necessary to complete details and action on the recommendations, the new policies will not become effective until January 1, 1962.

Donahue added that N.A.M.A. will in no way represent or serve the music interests of companies which may become eligible for membership. "The proposed bylaws definition of the purposes of N.A.M.A. makes this abundantly clear. It states that the purpose of this association shall be to foster the interests of the automatic vending industry only," he explained.

The proposed bylaws amendment on eligibility will specifically prohibit the membership of companies which operate ANY type of coin-operated amusement or chance-type equipment, no matter how many automatic merchandising machines they may operate. This action will incorporate into the bylaws the N.A.M.A. policy which has been in effect since the association was founded in 1936.

The Board of Directors emphasized that "eligibility" of all applicants for membership depends upon the applicant's "good business repute," and charged the Committee on Membership Qualifications to recommend procedures for extensive review and investigation of all applicants.

"The action of the Board of Directors in effect recognizes that many fine vending companies in recent years have, for competitive reasons, acquired some music machines. Also it recognizes the fact that a number of leading vending machine manufacturers and music machine manufacturers are already manufacturing both types of equipment," Donahue said.

"To exclude such organizations from membership in N.A.M.A. would fail to recognize the changes which have occurred and are now a fact. By clarifying our association purposes and membership policies we have reaffirmed our basic principle to serve only the automatic vending interests of our members. Yet we are making it possible to include in membership those companies of good repute which may have minor interests in music.

"It should be strongly emphasized that no company whose major interest is in coin-operated music, or that any company which operates amusement or chance-type equipment, will be eligible for N.A.M.A. membership, no matter what automatic vending equipment is included in the operation," Donahue stated.

"Also, these actions of the Board should in no way be interpreted as an encroachment on activities of other existing associations. Our Board action will specifically exclude N.A.M.A. activities in behalf of coin-operated music machines," he said.

Canteen Acquires Five Swiss Music Operating Firms

CHICAGO—Canteen International SA, wholly-owned subsidiary of Automatic Canteen Co. of America, headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, has acquired five Swiss vending firms, it was announced last week by Nathaniel Leverone, Canteen Board Chairman.

Leverone said the five companies were purchased by Canteen in a straight stock transaction from Swiss businessman Max J. Vollmer.

The firms now operate automatic music machines throughout Switzerland. Under Canteen's direction they will merchandise a full line of vending equipment in that country, and handle distribution of music machines manufactured by Automatic Music, Inc., another Canteen subsidiary.

The five Swiss firms are: Cortina-Automaten AG Basel; Cortina Automatique Lausanne SA; Cortina-Automaten AG Zuerich; Cortina-Automatci Bellinzona SA; and Emo Societe Financiere SA.

Leverone said the acquisition immediately adds substantially to Canteen European sales, with an additional increase anticipated when vending machine sales get underway.

Automatic Canteen Co. of America has other vending operation in Sweden, Germany and England, plus its own manufacturing facilities in Germany, and manufacturing licensees in England, France and Italy.

W. Va. Music Ops Hold Annual Meet

CHARLESTON, W. VA.—William R. Worthman, executive secretary of the West Virginia Music Operators Association here advised that the operator group was ready for its largest turnout at an annual Convention which was scheduled at the Daniel Boone Hotel September 15 and 16. At press time manufacturers representatives and officials of the tax and internal revenue service departments were arriving to take part in the annual convention.

"King Of Games" Tourney Head Advises That Location-Owner Signature Not Needed With Ops' OK

Special Location Consent Forms To Be Made Available At Contest Time

NEW YORK—New York's games operators received official contracts for the "King of Games" tournament to be conducted by Craig-Todd Agency last week and a clause whereby operators would be legally entitled to the material used in conjunction with the contest held up immediate response from recipients, according to Martin Greenfield, Craig-Todd head. Greenfield explained that clause number four on the reverse side of the contract reads . . . obtain signed consent of location owner for each registered location before contest material is released to such locations . . . threw a snag into the preliminaries which to date have ran rather smooth.

According to Greenfield the reason for the clause was "to protect the operator against the possibility of the location interfering in progress of the tourney once the contest had started."

Actually, said Greenfield, consent of the location isn't necessary until the material is being delivered for display in the tavern. At that time the operator may have the location owner sign for the display signs, stickers, cards, et al, and then begin placing them throughout the bar. "Most operators called and advised that it would be impossible to sign from 50 to 150 locations in one or two day's time and that they therefore couldn't send checks to our firm until at least one more week had elapsed," stated Greenfield. "The truth of the matter is that signatures aren't necessary now, but will be at the time the contest material is received."

Meanwhile, the Craig-Todd firm advised that contracts were expected to be signed and delivered accounting for approximately 600 games before the end of the week. The location signature snafu held up receipt of signed contracts but three larger than average firms reportedly signed and returned contracts before continuing with the location signature portion of the contest preliminaries.

Craig-Todd expects to mail to participating games firms a number of "consent agreements" equal to the number of locations registered by each operator for signatures. "To send these agreements in advance would mean sending all operators at least 200 copies since that is the maximum number of machines any one operator is expected to enroll. Therefore, operators with five machines would receive 200 consent agreements as would operators with 50 and 150 machines," continued Greenfield. "We can't mail the agreement for location-owners signatures until we know exactly how many locations are involved. We won't know this until we receive checks and signed contracts for a specific number of machines and locations from each operator."

Craig-Todd continued with its publicity campaign last week in the metropolitan tradespapers when another front page news story appeared in the Beverage Retailer Weekly as a follow-up to the original story of the contest, aimed at location owners, two weeks ago which carried a banner headline.

Another contest promotion, "Tournament of Champions" tourney promoted by Harry Berger, West Distributing head, was taking shape as a meeting of games operators, called by Berger Sept. 14, took place at the Park-Sharaton Hotel. (See story on following page.)

Lyn Durant, Herb Oettinger Visit Distributors On "Bowl-A-Rama" Tour

NEW YORK—Lyn Durant, president, and Herb Oettinger, treasurer, United Manufacturing Company, Chicago, arrived in New York City last week after traveling to Philadelphia where they visited with Al Rodstein, Banner Specialty Company, United distributors in the Pennsylvania territory.

While in New York, Durant and Oettinger met with Irving Holzman, Black Sales Company, United outlet here.

The United officials stated that the primary reason for their trip to the eastern sales territories was to view the "Bowl-A-Rama" machines which were shipped during the past three weeks and have been in operation in major cities for this same length of time. Banner was previously reported to have United's "Bowl-A-Ramas" on tavern and arcade locations while Holzman originally installed the giant bowler at a Queens County arcade and also in New York's famed "Bowl-A-Bite," amusement sensation catering to a show business crowd on New York's east side.

Durant and Oettinger were very enthusied over operating reports in Philly and New York and advised that good-sized collections and infrequent service were the most noteworthy aspects of the machines on location.

The United execs were expected back at the Chicago plant on Monday, September 19.

Berger Outlines "Tourney Of Champs" Contest At NYC Games Ops Meeting

NEW YORK—Harry Berger, New York games operator and head of West Side Distributing Corporation, this city, hosted an operators' meeting last Wednesday evening, September 14, at the Park-Sheraton Hotel and detailed a step-by-step program for his "Tournament of Champions" contest, a tourney which is expected to be conducted in the metropolitan area on coin-operated amusement games located in the City's taverns. The response to Berger's plan was reported as enthusiastic and according to Berger, "official operator participation should take place very shortly when I produce authorized proof of television coverage of the finals; Madison Square Garden as a site for the finals; and evidence of $25,000 in prizes for the winners."

Berger also stated that the contest would embrace no less than 2000 machines and that the cost to each operator would be $5 per machine each week for a thirteen week contest period. He also said that he expects to fill Madison Square Garden with 20,000 people "based on distribution of free tickets to the finals to be distributed to bars at the rate of ten tickets to each of 2000 taverns." Berger advised that in each case one step was contingent on the other with TV station execs going for the idea if 20,000 people were promised along with a minimum of $25,000 in prizes to be awarded the evening of the coverage.

Berger also advised that official announcement of names of "highly respected people" will be made at a later date, the presence of whom should lend much to the publicity value of the tourney. Berger stated that the total amount of money grossed would pay for the cost of running the tourney with the balance to be donated to a worthy charity and to be presented by the Public Relations Committee of the N.Y.S.C.M.A., Inc.

Meanwhile, the Craig-Todd Agency, original contest tourney promoters here, advised that contracts have been mailed to New York games operators advising of an October 15 starting date and outlining the official rules and regulations of the "King of Games" contest.

Dave Gottlieb Plans Expansion Of Hospital

CHICAGO—A dinner meeting attended by 115 doctors was hosted by Dave Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Company, this city, last week and the pinball machine manufacturer, whose family has contributed $750,000 to the David Gottlieb Memorial Hospital, detailed to the medicos plans for future expansion. The hospital is scheduled to open its doors in the Spring of 1961.

"Being located in the fastest growing industrial section in the country," said Gottlieb, "we cannot but plan ahead for an ultimate goal of 360 beds."

Added financing would be necessary and Gottlieb told the doctors that he would have "startling news" of the necessary added financing upon completion of the first unit.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.—Top national dignitaries, foreign national leaders and anyone else attending the United Nations General Assembly meetings here starting Tuesday, September 20, will have to pass through International Mutoscope automatic photo machines for two photographs—one for the official identification badge to be worn during official meetings and the second photo for UN files.

Ordinarily, according to Larry Galente, Mutoscope president, security measures don't call for such close scrutiny. But with the likes of Khrushchev, Castro, Kadar plus top political luminaries from almost every country in the world, UN officials have decided to photograph everyone, including the thousands of newspapermen here to cover the event.

Galente advised that four Mutoscope photo machines will be required to handle approximately 10,000 people. "We'll start as early as possible and photograph 1000 people per day," said Galente from the United Nations location last week.

The Security officials had evidently found standard camera equipment, Polaroid cameras and other means of photography too slow because of the developing time necessary. "The coin machine industry came through with the answer and the result is that every political leader in the world will have his picture taken in a coin-operated photo machine before the General Assembly meeting is over!" stated Galente.

"Bowl-A-Rama," Hank continued, "is undoubtedly the biggest thing to hit the coin machine business in the past several years." Williams new 5 ball novelty "Jungle," and Midway's new "Shooting Gallery," are also kicking-up interest among the operators, according to Hank. . . . Walter Cook, operator from Palos Verdes Estates, spent the week-end fishing around the Porterville area. . . . HOUSTON HAPPENINGS

Local coinman Harry H. Holston, lately with Amusement Distributors, has joined staff of Port Arthur Novelty Co., Port Arthur. He and family already have moved to that city. . . . C. O. (Red) Harrington, owner H & H Distributors, all fired up over possibilities of United's new 28 ft. long "Bowl-A-Rama." The new game has a most realistic touch as player actually holds ball in hand when going after strikes and spares. Appears like a sizable number of game operators agree with Red too that some money might be made with the 25¢ play "Bowl-A-Rama." . . . Mostly a man of leisure is Billy Rider since selling his holdings in Southwestern Amusement, Inc. Billy, with some little cash in his jeans, is presently scouting the field for a connection where an honest dollar (or a dollar anyhow) might be earned. . . . Decca Records boasted a most attractive display at the 6th annual Houston International Trade and Travel Fair Sept. 9-18 at the Shamrock Hilton Hall of Exhibits. . . . Operator R. E. Parker, owner Parker Amusement, not overly disturbed about current slump because during his 25 continuous years in coinmatic business he has seen it happen before and guesses it will happen again.

Music Ops Of Nebraska To Hold Fall Meet In Norfolk Oct 1-2

Mayor Warren Cook Will Address Coinmen

OMAHA—Howard N. Ellis, presiding officer of the Music Guild of Nebraska, announced this past week that the major music operators' association in the midwestern area embracing the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, and Minnesota, will hold its Annual Fall meeting, Saturday & Sunday, October 1 & 2, at the Madison Hotel in Norfolk, Nebraska.

Music operator Ralph Reeves will host the two day conclave. The Hon. Warren Cook, Mayor of Norfolk, has accepted an invitation tendered by Reeves and Ellis to address the assemblage at the Sunday evening banquet.

Ellis advised that there will be a heavy agenda of topics for discussion as well as a discussion of public relations.

"Every member of the Music Guild of Nebraska is fully aware of his responsibility toward the furtherance of our National Coin-Machine Council, instituted for the common good of all operators as well as those coinmen in the manufacturing and distribution facets of the industry," Ellis noted.

He concluded by urging all members to place their reservations with Ralph Reeves early to avoid any confusion at the Madison Hotel.

New Ice Machine

CINCINNATI, O.—Hilson Industries, Inc., ice machine manufacturers here announced that they have acquired exclusive rights to a new patented ice vending machine.

Irving Benjamin, president, advised that the machine manufactures its own ice, automatically fills bags and dispenses the package upon insertion of a coin.

The machine must be serviced with empty bags—a total capacity of 200. Bag capacities may be altered by means of a mechanical mechanism. Delivery is not expected until next year. The machine will be named the "Hilson Robot." The firm also manufactures the Hilson "Servette," a standard ice vending machine serviced with fully loaded packages of ice.

Wico Spotlights Speaker — Baffle Models

CHICAGO—Milt Wiczer, sales manager of Wico Corporation of this city, advised this past week that there has been an immediate and concerted demand among Wico customers in the domestic and foreign markets for the firm's four new lines of speakers and baffles, since the recent introduction internationally of the 1961 parts and components catalog.

For the first time in the 20 years growth of the coin machine parts supplier, the firm is producing four different lines of speakers and baffles, offering customers a wide range of prices and styling, according to Wiczer. The Wico speaker and baffle lines available now are "Audio Duet," "Miracle Sound," "Dyna Sound," and "Hi-Tone."

Ed Ruber, another official of the company, interjected at this point to explain that each individual line offers Wico's customers the finest in styling for stereo and monaural reproduction, and at the lowest cost to the trade. "Audio Duet" is a compactly styled wall baffle designed for simple hook-up and peak performance. The "Miracle Sound" speaker and baffle line is available in standard wall and sloping corner models. "Dyna Sound" is available in standard wall, de luxe wall and sloping corner models. The "Hi-Tone" baffle and speaker is a compact, circular ceiling model of sturdy steel construction, with a mounting ring installation for easy removal and servicing.

"The anticipated rise in interest in stereo sound for 1961 in a vastly greater number of locations prompted us to greatly increase our speaker and baffle lines," Ruber stated. "Naturally, the success in 1960 of our 'Miracle Sound' line assured us that this present step was not only feasible; but, rather necessary."

Wiczer concluded by stating: "Our customers will be pleased to know that this wide range of speakers and baffles, manufactured by us in our own factory, offers a wide, varied price range for the finest, most complete lineup of baffles anywhere."

Standard Financial Corp. Acquires Fortune Factors

NEW YORK — Standard Financial Corporation, this city, has acquired all of the outstanding stock of Fortune Factors, Inc. in an all-cash transaction, Theodore H. Silbert, president of Standard Financial, announced last week. The purchase price was not disclosed.

Fortune Factors, Inc., an "old line" factoring company, will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Standard Financial in New York City.

Established in 1937, Fortune Factors has shown continuous growth over the years, and presently transacts an annual volume of factored sales of approximately $75 million.

The entire executive staff of Fortune Factors, headed by Frederick Klein, president, Richard G. Rattner and Leonard W. Long, vice presidents, will continue in their present positions and operate the company.

"This acquisition," Silbert said, "is another forward step of our policy of diversification in financing and factoring. Fortune Factors will now have access to the $75 million of resources of Standard Financial Corporation to expand Fortune Factors' services and facilities for their clients."

EASTERN FLASHES

Hurricane Donna did most of its machine damage along the Rockaways when, according to coinmen in the area, "the ocean and the bay met each other." . . . Service outfits had their hands full. . . . No bad reports from Connecticut—they had more than their share with the last flood. . . . Long Island areas on the south shore were hit badly especially along the Hamptons where the season is still in full swing. . . . All show windows were intact along Tenth Avenue, strongholds of winds, rain, hurricanes and hard-to-sell operators. . . . Didn't stop Irving Holzman and his crew from talking about United's "Bowl-A-Rama." Another giant bowler left for the second "Bowl-A-Bite" location scheduled to open Friday evening, Sept. 16 in Great Neck. First one opened here in New York's 51st Street one month ago and is a fantastic story of promotional success. Celebs visit during the early hours of day, after shows, before going home. Big names of music, stage, radio-tv stop by and play United shuffle alleys and bowlers at 25¢ per play. The big one gets 50¢ per line! Collections every week are way above normal restaurant-bar-arcade type spots. Bernie Lang, Johnny Ray's manager, and part-owner of the place franchised the second location in Great Neck and expects to do the same across the USA. If it goes over it could provide dozens of brand new outlets for coin-operated equipment. So far the outfit is using only United equipment.

* * * * *

This was expected to be a big week in New York for games contests with Harry Berger calling a meeting of operators on Wed. eve. at the Park-Sheraton Hotel to discuss details of his "Tournament Of Champions" contest and the other outfit, Craig-Todd Agency led by Martin Greenfield, awaiting return of formal contracts from games ops all over the city after a blanket mailing was made earlier in the week. Greenfield and his staff have spent a few bucks trying to get this contest idea off the ground and if the verbal OK's are any sign the contracts should be rolling in accompanied by checks for the amount depending on the number of locations. Total amount isn't necessary at once. Firm is accepting installment payments over a 30 day period. Meanwhile, almost every operating firm has been advised of the details either personally or thru the mails. . . .

* * * * *

Atlantic New York Corp. has sponsored a mailing to ops in the area supplying the coinmen with information that should prove helpful during the Presidential campaign. The 32-page booklet has everything in it from a complete list of all U.S. presidents to an explanation of the Electoral College. Very handy to have around. Stop by Atlantic and pick one up if you haven't received it in the mail. Not a word in it about Seeburg! Mailed as a public service.

* * * * *

Marvin Goldstein, Runyon Sales Company's parts specialist is always on the lookout for a new idea especially if it looks as if it will spur sales in the AMI showrooms. Latest innovation on sale from the Runyon parts counter is a speaker installed inside the frame of a color painting. Very attractive and the sound is pretty good, too. Marv believes there's a lot of locations looking for just this and he has several samples to show off if you just ask him. Morris Rood actually held two telephones, one to each ear, last week talking with a customer on one line, while Irv "Kempy" Kempner talked on the other from Upstate. Morris translated and forwarded prices and information between "Kempy" and the operator for about five minutes and then closed the deal. The op probably never left bed! . . . "Shugy" Sugarman happy about Myron's return to the export division after a honeymoon in P.R. The export biz is a solid part of Runyon's overall now that it has been developed and promoted. The AMI phonos "Lyric" and "Continental" look just fine on the showroom floor and visiting ops evidently feel the same way if sales are any indication. Bally's new "Deluxe Jumbo" shuffle alley expected in any day now. . . . Mike Munves advises that arcade ops enjoyed peak business this summer. Did you know that Chamber of Commerce figs for the Rockaways this summer reached 40 million people, 5 million more than 1959? And this only during Memorial Day through Labor Day. If you played a machine on the boardwalk May 29th you don't count! Joe Munves has plans for the winter but he isn't talking. . . . Al Simon up in the clouds over the success Rock-Ola phonos have enjoyed. "Tempo II" phonos enjoyed wide sales in the metro area since Simon took the line on last Spring and is very happy he got involved in the music machine business. Al D'Inzillo looking sharp as a tack sells the ChiCoin line to visiting ops as "Duchess" bowler steals the show. The big ball bowler is a beauty and Al tells us he's doing a fine job on it. The Simon salesrooms and showrooms will feature window displays next week and the equipment will be displayed to ops strolling the Avenue. . . . "Whitey" Druckman, Black Sales, claims the new "Bowl-A-Rama" is a cinch to service. "They're easier to work on than the other machines half the size!" Irving Holzman was busy with visitors last week and then had to review the export end of things with Murry Sandow. Lou Druckman has about forgotten his vacation by now what with all of the equipment moving in and out of the showrooms. Sure keeps him busy. . . . Anyone with ideas on programming music and pinpointing top operating spots ought to talk with Abe Lipsky, Libra Distributors, Wurlitzer outlet currently doing a great job with the "2400." Abe's knowledge of the records sold today runs deep and makes sense, too. He has a working knowledge of typical juke box stops and has his own views on what makes a good location—and what records make money in those locations. Harry Koeppel tells us in addition to the music sales the firm is moving "Smokeshoppe" cig machines in nice quantity. . . . Murray Kaye, Atlantic NY Corp. handling the fast tempo of business with short, quick notes and then a "deciphering" session at 6 PM to find out "who ordered what" and "when they want it." "Never missed an order yet," smiles Murray, and we're sure he hasn't. Meyer Parkoff advises that all divisions of the Atlantic firm are working at a steady pace "and that's always a good sign" says Parkoff. "Artist of the Week" display panels were moving out at a rapid clip as we arrived. All in all business looked good.

* * * * *

Mike Mulqueen in from Beacon to discuss coin equipment and golf. . . . Mac Pollay doing the same thing only his interests run on a higher level, about 6 hands higher, that is, Mac's a horse enthusiast. . . . Al "Senator" Bodkin looking for a music machine to fill a request (actually a promise by the PR Committee) from Creedmor Hospital originally planned last March when the coinmen in town sent a phono to the Mentally Distressed Ward. . . . Jack Rowan, Koenig Music, down from Kingston and has his arms loaded with tubes, bulbs, and other miscellaneous supplies. . . . Mrs. Gertrude Browne a regular Tues. PM visitor and a pleasant one at that. . . . John Bullock, veteran op, from Hurleyville and the mountain range, advises that the small hotels are not doing too well this year. "Big hotel operators give you the best of everything at the same low price." Bullock has been fire chief up there for about 30 years. . . .

CHICAGO CHATTER

Fall and Winter business forecasts are being tossed about by analysis experts with reckless abandon, and the only thing we're certain of to date is that the "pro's" cannot agree with other "pro's," and the "con's" are likewise about other "con's." However, "pro" or "con" the picture looks rosy indeed for the coin machine industry, according to reliable reports from manufacturers and distributors. . . . Meanwhile, on the local coinbiz scene there is a decided upsurge in all phases of operation on the manufacturing level, such as production, shipping and sales. Current models of music and amusement equipment are moving well. New models of both, amusement equipment and automatic phonographs are being readied for early release to satisfy the demand of operators and locations.

Art Weinand, director of sales for Chicago Dynamic Industries, expounded at length on the terrific sales reaction he and Mort Secore have been getting from all markets with Chicago Coin's twin Bowling alleys "Duchess" and "Duke," after which he told us that he had just returned from attending the Virginia Music Operators' showing in Richmond, Va. Art addressed the assemblage on behalf of the Coin-Machine Council, national public relations organization, urging operator groups and the individual members to "climb on the C-MC bandwagon" for sound public relations. He explained the entire program to visitors to the conclave.

Sam Stern and Sam Lewis, Williams Electronic Mfg., are experiencing a banner early Fall business spurt with Williams' "Space Glider" rifle-target upright amusement game. The trio of pinball games housed in the "Styling for the 60's" cabinets—"Jungle," "Music Man" and "Darts" are definitely selling well all over the country, according to Sam Lewis. . . . Among the prominent coinmen flitting about the country on business are Seeburg vice-president Tom Herrick, and United Mfg.s. Herb Oettinger.

Bill DeSelm, general sales manager of United Mfg., hastens to advise that "Bowl-A-Rama" (he calls it the biggest ball bowler) is racking up huge sales and mucho interest all over the country. Meanwhile, he adds, the "Sunny" shuffle alley and "Savoy" bowling alley amusement games are definitely not taking a backseat to "Bowl-A-Rama" at all. In fact, their popularity continues to be strong. . . . Atlas Music's Harold Schwartz info's that Atlas' man-in-motion, Bill Phillips, was sort of "motion-less" last week for a spell. It so happens that his new car burned out on him (completely demolished), and he couldn't get around. However, he's now back on the road since he received his new gas buggy. Harold sez there's plenty of activity in Seeburg cigarette vendors as well as the Seeburg "Artist of the Week" promotion. Now that 33-1/3 rpm records are literally pouring in at Atlas Music there is an availability of all types of music for all types of locations, according to Nate Feinstein. . . . Business is certainly booming at Bally Manufacturing. This is easily evident by all the activity we note there. It isn't possible to pow-wow with Herb Jones or Bill O'Donnell these Fall days. Art Garvey just returned from Richmond, Virginia where he attended the Music Op's convention there, and now he's headed back southeast for the West Virginia Music Operators' Association annual convention, September 15 & 16, at the Daniel Boone Hotel in Huntington, W. Va.

The constantly busy Gottlieb family finds very little time to spend with their own families due to all the activity in making deliveries of "Spot-A-Card" pinball amusement game and keeping tabs on the construction progress at the site of the Gottlieb Memorial Hospital. David Gottlieb glows more day by day as he sees the hospital become a reality. Nate and Alvin Gottlieb, and Judd Weinberg spend as much of their collective time on both projects—the hospital and "Spot-A-Card." . . . J. H. Keeney & Co.'s. Harold Dorgan informs us that vice prexy Paul Huebsch is off on another one of those weekly business junkets and is expected back in his office by the end of the week. The big news is absolutely Keeney's "Twin Red Arrow" electronic upright amusement game. . . . Auto-Bell's sales chief, Al Warren, tells us "Super Circus" is having a sales field day every day around the country. Operators are that wild about the game. . . . The big news at World Wide Distribs, according to Joel Stern, is Chicago Coin's "Duchess" and "Duke" bowling alleys, and their popularity among local operators. Len Micon is delighted about continued interest among ops of Rock-Ola's "Tempo II" model stereo and monaural phonographs.

Gil Kitt, owner of Empire Coin Machine Exchange, reports that he can scarcely recall having an amusement game receive the immediate reaction that United's "Bowl-A-Rama" created locally, in Indiana, and in Michigan just as soon as it was installed in locations. Joe Robbins adds that a game like this one just goes on and on in popularity. . . . The Rowe-AMI Sales building is still undergoing construction in the recent expansion program. Prexy Charles Brinkmann, Edward Wiler and Mike Spagnola are knee-deep in debris, but can already see the changes being wrought by contractors. . . . Chet Gore, prexy of Exhibit Supply Co., is now a suburbanite. He recently moved his family into his new residence in west suburban Bensenville. (Wait 'til he starts shoveling snow from his walk and garage! And, oh, yes, how about mowing the lawn). . . . We're breathing much easier since our Harriette underwent major surgery at Michael Reese Hospital last week. After a few weeks of convalescence she'll be as good as new.

Sam Hastings, president of the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators' Association, reports that there was no decisive action taken at the September 12 meeting at the Ambassador Hotel pending a report from the organization's attorney, Joseph E. Tierney, following his scheduled meeting with local Internal Revenue officials. John Stewart, Bally Vending, advises that his firm participated and showed Bally's new model #662 small cup-at-a-time fresh brew coffee vender at the LaTouraine Coffee Co. showing in New York City. The vending machine will also be demonstrated this weekend at the Superior Coffee & Tea "Vendorama" showings in Chicago. . . . "Flier" Estelle Bye just returned to her office at Marvel Mfg. from her windblown vacation with her hubby. As was previously reported the couple piloted their own Cessna cabin plane throughout the southwest and west coast recently. She was particularly happy to miss our recent heatwave. (And, now she's shivering!). . . . All-State Coin's Stan Levin departed last week on a business trip, and is expected back sometime this week. . . . Now that the Fall season is in full swing Clarence Schuyler, prexy of Games, Inc., will lay his trusty skeet shootin' rifles aside for a spell and completely concentrate on "Twin Super Wild Cat" electronic upright amusement game—not that it needs any concentratin' to sell well—it has been for quite a while, according to Schuyler.

We're wondering what is on tap in coin-operated football type amusement games now that the football season is elbowing baseball out of the picture for the nonce. First of all, however, the annual World Series fever is setting in, and at this writing we're still in the dark as to who will clinch the highly coveted American League pennant among the Yankees, Baltimore Orioles and Bill Veck's White Sox. Veck promises to have his pinball type scoreboard (the monster) work overtime if his hose of white bring home the bacon. . . . Howard Ellis writes from his office in Omaha to advise that the Music Guild of Nebraska will hold its annual Fall Meeting, October 1 & 2, at the Madison Hotel in Norfolk, Nebraska. Ralph Reeves, host of the shindig has invited Hon. Warren Cook, Mayor of Norfolk, to address the group at the Sunday evening banquet (Oct. 2). . . . Mort Levinson, National Coin, tells us on a happy note that export business is really booming these Fall days. . . . Purveyor's Herb Perkins, who is usually in and out of the city on business trips is "in" this week, and working like blazes to catch up on his correspondence.

Bally Releases "De Luxe Jumbo Bowler"

CHICAGO—Announcing delivery of "De Luxe Jumbo Bowler," shuffle-alley, Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, described the new game as an improved model of "Official Jumbo," which he called one of the most successful shuffle-alleys in recent years.

"From the point of view of sales volume," O'Donnell said, "as well as earning-power on location, few bowlers can compare with 'Official Bowler.' Continued heavy demand for the popular players'-choice alley required us to plan continued production of Official Jumbo. We decided, however, to flash the game up in appearance and incorporate recently developed mechanical refinements.

"De Luxe Jumbo Bowler" features the popular push-button players'-choice of official bowling scores or speed-control scores by which player must carefully gauge force of puck-shot—not too fast and not too slow.

"The famous Super-Strike feature, built into 'De Luxe Jumbo' Bowler, insures play from all types of players. The average person gets a lot of satisfaction hitting the comparatively 'easy' regular Strikes. The 'skill-shark' who gets bored with 'easy' Strikes is kept interested by the challenge of Super-Strikes, which call for extra skill. Result is maximum play in each location and maximum earning-power," concluded O'Donnell.

Mangone In Accident

MIAMI, FLA.—Joe Mangone, All-Coin Amusement, this city, was reportedly injured in an automobile accident when his car struck a concrete wall here. Mangone received one hundred stitches and according to reports was recuperating at home this week.

Franz Hosts "Artist Of Week" Dinner

HOUSTON, TEX.—A crowd of 128 Seeburg musicians, their wives and service managers, were guests of the H. A. Franz & Co. for cocktails and dinner Thursday, Sept. 8, in Continental Room of the Shamrock Hotel. The idea was to acquaint those present with proven methods of increased profits in coin operated phonographs.

H. A. Franz, president and owner of the hosting firm, kicked off the program by introducing speaker of the evening, Jack Gordon, Seeburg vice president. Gordon discussed the machine, the Model "Q," and record speed changes in relation to operators net profit. He stressed operator benefits of 33 1/3 rpms and quoted record manufacturers who have pressed that speed. Bob Kelly, executive vice president, and Arnold Silverman, sales promotion head, explained how programming, merchandising, and location contracts could increase operators profits.

The dinner-meeting was one of a series of distributor-operator meetings conducted by Seeburg wholesalers to present the "Artist of the Week" merchandising program in the proper light. Speeds, material, artists and collections highlight the talks and a panel of Seeburg execs, led by Gordon, explain the program in detail to guest operators. The "Artist of the Week" promotion is for use in conjunction with the Seeburg Model "Q" phono only.
